Mao's Far East Fighting Machine

Communist China army of over 5,000,000 men is probably largest standing army in world today. Map shows approximate location and strength of Mao Tse-tung's "people's liberation army." Reds have also built five new air bases next to Indo-China, in Kwangsi Province—an added threat to French fighting Viet Minh rebels. Some experts feel blockade of China coast would hamper Reds.

$1,000 Salvation Army Flood Funds Stolen

Safe-Crackers Get $1,300 In Night Raid on Citadel

Thieves carried off a Salvation Army Citadel safe which contained a cheque for $1,000 for European flood relief, $200 in bearer bonds and an unspecified amount of cash some time Monday night or Tuesday morning.

Police disclosed that the flood relief cheque was made out for $1,000. Cash was believed to total about $100, possibly more.

Salvation Army officials confirmed these figures.

Records of several days' flood relief collections were stolen with the safe.

Detective Angus Munro, in charge of the investigation, said the raiders broke into the Citadel at 757 Pandora by forcing a window.

From there, police assume, the safe was loaded into a car and carried to a secluded spot for systematic destruction.

Besides cash and bonds, the safe contained insurance and other valuable papers and records.

SECOND VICTIM

The Citadel robbery was not the only one of the night. Jack Lacey was checking stock at his auto body repair shop to see if Monday night thieves had made more than a search of the place.

The office was ransacked, but "they didn't get any cash because none was left there," he said.

Thieves Get Flood Fund Loot

Flood Relief Fund Total Now $16,683

Sunday Show Aids With $742 Gift

Generous Victorians continue to pour money into the Victoria Daily Times Flood Relief Fund for British, Dutch and Belgian flood victims, raising it to a total today of $16,683.

First of the city service clubs to contribute to the relief of the flood victims was the Victoria Gyro Club, which voted a $200 donation to the fund Monday.

Other substantial donations received at the Times office today were: League of Roses, $50; Dr. H. J. Wasson, $100; Mr. and Mrs. Norman Yarrow, $100; Army, Navy and Air Force Veterans' Ladies' Auxiliary, $100; Mayor Claude Harrison, $50, and $61.46 collected by Gus Polz from his fellow workers at Victoria Machinery Depot.

Coming events to help the fund are a tag day Saturday by Victoria municipal chapter, IODE, and a fashion show and entertainment Feb. 25 at Club Sirocco under sponsorship by Victorians of Dutch origin.

Chamber Group Favors Open Wednesday

Issue Brings Hot Argument

Tourist trade group of the Victoria Chamber of Commerce today called for the scrapping of Wednesday afternoon store closing.

A resolution to this effect was passed following heated discussion, and will be forwarded to City Council.

Ald. Brent Murdoch won a fight with Woodward's store manager Courtenay Haddock, on the issue.

Ald. Murdoch urged the group to support an appeal to the City Council to abolish the Wednesday afternoon closing by-law, charging: "Store hours at present are ruining tourist trade and are working a severe hardship on operators of small shops."

'SELFISH INTERESTS'

"The present system is being preserved by a handful of selfish interests," the alderman said.

Mr. Haddock countered with the claim that "the business you get on Wednesday is not worth the powder to blow it to hell."

"The same argument raged in Vancouver," he said, "but it is simply a case of the newspapers creating a furor over the issue because they want Wednesday opening to get more advertising."

Mr. Haddock contended that store help deserved the Wednesday half holiday, and for this reason alone the shops ought to be closed.

COMPLAINTS

Mrs. A. Burr, proprietor of the Stork Shop, said that the tourist complaints were constant against "slamming the doors in visitor's faces on Wednesdays."

City lawyer Robert Harvey told the meeting it was obvious that store executives like Mr. Haddock got their salaries anyway, no matter how long his store stayed open, or how much business his firm did, but the "little man" depends on more shopping hours and more business to earn a living.

Reds Promise Disaster To Any Invasion Forces

By GRAHAM JENKINS

HONG KONG (Reuters) — Communist China announced today that any effort to invade the Chinese mainland would be "wiped out on the sea."

The warning fell as a welter of reports throughout the Far East described sea clashes, sightings of mysterious vessels and pledges of support for a Nationalist invasion of the mainland.

President Eisenhower touched off the Far East ferment eight days ago by ordering the U.S. 7th fleet to cease shielding the Chinese mainland from a Nationalist invasion.

Communist troops there, the broadcast said, are in "the first line of defense," and are being given "every comfort" including visits from entertainers to raise their spirits.

Almost simultaneous with the Peiping broadcast, a 25-minute sea battle took place this morning off an island about 30 miles southeast of the Portuguese colony of Macau. Reliable sources here said Communist patrol boats had exchanged fire with armed junks believed to belong to the Chinese Nationalist "sea guerrillas."

An observer with a telescope said he had seen one armed junk hit and sunk.

Sources here said the encounter might represent the first Nationalist move to blockade the Chinese mainland—a plan now being widely discussed in the United States.

Reports from Formosa today said Admiral John Ma, Nationalist navy commander now in the U.S., was trying to obtain four American rocket ships ready for immediate use to help implement an effective blockade of the China coast.

HIGH TENSION

As tension heightened from Tokyo to Singapore, there were these additional developments:

1. Coast Guard officials in Southern Japan reported mysterious vessels of unknown nationality had appeared in waters north of Formosa in the last week. Two ships were spotted by fishermen Monday 160 miles north of Formosa. A floating mine was found in the area the day previously.

2. In Singapore, more than 100 Chinese associations cabled Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek, Nationalist chief, and President Eisenhower assuring them of "full support in the fight against Communists in China."

3. North Korea's defense minister, Choi Yung Kun, called for intensified preparations for a prolonged war "on a still larger scale" in Korea, according to Peiping radio. He described the North Korean Army now as "an invincible force" which would deal a decisive blow to any further U.S. "military adventure."

4. In Pusan, the provisional South Korean capital, Korean naval chief Admiral Shon Won Yi called for expansion of his navy for the day "when the greater part of the U.S. 7th fleet goes to blockade Communist ships." He said he had discussed expansion of South Korea's navy with U.S. 7th fleet officials.

Talk of Blockade 'Premature'—Dulles

Retiring Van Fleet Says Allied Offensive Could Win Korean War

WASHINGTON (AP)—State Secretary John Foster Dulles told senators today President Eisenhower has made no decision on a possible blockade of Communist China or other action in the Far East.

Dulles, who testified at a closed session of the Senate foreign relations committee, was quoted by two senators as having told the group that any discussion of a blockade is "premature."

Senators H. Alexander Smith, Rep., N.J., and William Fulbright, D., Ark., said they got the impression from Dulles that the whole Far Eastern situation is wide open for any action the President may want to take in the future.

Gen. Omar Bradley, chairman of the joint chiefs of staff, and Secretary of State John Foster Dulles are appearing before a closed session of the foreign relations committee.

Meanwhile, leading Republican and some Democratic senators had made their views known in advance of the secret session:

Chairman Alexander Wiley (R—Wis.) called for "actual delivery of the military hardware" to the Chinese Nationalists, which, he said, "had fallen deplorably behind schedule."

Sen. Styles Bridges (R N.H.) not only called for a blockade but said he favored allowing UN planes to bomb Red-held Manchuria and the use of atom bombs to end the Korean war.

Sen. R. B. Russell (D—Ga.) said the United States should "press vigorously" for a UN blockade.

Sen. Everett Dirksen (R—Ill.) endorsed a blockade but did not specify it should be UN sponsored.

Sen. William Rowland (R—Cal.) wants the United States to "go it alone" on a blockade if necessary.

Sen. Robert Taft (R—Ohio) said it was "open to question whether the U.S. should attempt a blockade without Allied help" and said he would support a Nationalist invasion of the mainland "only if the administration considered it a feasible measure."

Sen. Estes Kefauver (D., Tenn.) insisted agreements should be worked out in the UN before any blockade is imposed.

Sen. Lester Hunt (D., Wyo.) said "the British can't pull out" from a decision to blockade Red China if the U.S. insists on it.

Sen. Hubert Humphrey (D., Minn.) said he would ask Dulles if he has considered the possibility of submarine retaliation in case of a blockade.

SEOUL (AP)—Gen. James A. Van Fleet said today a United Nations general offensive in Korea now would be a certain success.

On the eve of his farewell to the 8th Army, the 60-year-old retiring commander again expressed belief in carrying the war to the Reds, said the UN lost opportunities for whipping the Communists and called for a 1,000,000-man Republic of Korea Army with 20 combat divisions.

Tel Aviv Blast Hurts Red Minister's Wife

Dozens Arrested After Soviet Legation Bombing Injures Five; Incident Regretted

TEL AVIV (AP) — Several dozen persons have been arrested in connection with the bombing of the Soviet legation here Monday night. Five persons, including the wife of the Soviet minister were injured.

It was believed the bombing was in reprisal for recent anti-Zionist charges by Communist officials in Moscow and the satellite capitals.

Israeli police announced that several persons have been arrested. But it was learned that dozens of persons were taken into custody during the night and this moring, mostly in Tel Aviv and Jerusalem. Among those detained for questioning are Chavir-Shiber of Jaffa, who stood unsuccessfully at the last parliamentary elections.

Police also raided clubs of the so-called anti-Communist League, confiscating a number of documents.

The Israeli government called the bombing a "dastardly outrage" and expressed its regrets to the Russian envoy and his staff and promised "swift justice" to those responsible.

It was learned from a reliable source in Tel Aviv hospital that surgeons expressed anxiety before the operation in view of recent Russian allegations that Jewish doctors intentionally killed Russian patients and requested the Soviet first secretary, Alexander Abramoff, to be present in the Hadassah operating theatre. Abramoff complied.

Vana's condition was reported today to be still serious.

Hospital Asks Statement of Financial Aid

A thorough review of all items of the contentious North Vancouver Hospital budget was scheduled for today at a meeting that might decide whether the hospital board or the government is going to run the hospital.

A delegation from the hospital, one of the first to feel the effect of the government's hospital freeze order, today was seeking a definite statement on government funds that will be available.

Here to try to solve the hospital's financial difficulties are Mayor Frank Goldsworthy and Ted Braggs, who will meet with Premier W. A. C. Bennett, Health Minister Eric Martin and Lloyd Detwiller, BCHIS commissioner.

North Vancouver Hospital was one of several reporting that increased costs made staying within 1952 budgets impossible.

Mother and Three Children Die

LAC STE. MARIE, Que. (CP) —A mother and three of her four children were burned to death early today in a fire which destroyed their isolated farm home 60 miles north of Ottawa.

Killed in the blaze, caused by an exploding oil stove, were Mrs. Germaine Lachapelle, Lucette, 1; Gislaine, 2, and Muriel, 3.

1 Dead, 38 Hurt In Koje Camp Riot

PUSAN, Korea (AP). — One Communist prisoner of war was killed and 38 injured, 13 seriously, on Koje Island Monday when United Nations guards subdued a singing, chanting Red mob with grenade and rifle fire, the UN prisoner-of-war command announced today.

There were no Allied casualties.

The flare-up came when North Korean prisoners began to shout and sing Communist songs "in violation of written orders". Three attempts were made to quiet them before the troops entered the compound. The Reds met the troops with "a hail of stones".

Nuns Return To Canada From Red China Jail

VANCOUVER (BUP)—Thin and weakened from the "oppressive mental pressure" of two years in Communist China jails, two Canadian nuns rested today in a Roman Catholic hospital before moving on to the motherhouse in Montreal.

Sister Superior Alphonse du Redempteur (Antoinette Couvrette, 29, of Ste Dorthee, Que.) and Sister Marie Germaine (Germaine Gravel, 44, of St. Pasteur, Que.) returned to Canada late yesterday after a 34-day Pacific crossing.

Both nuns were sentenced to five years in jail on trumped-up charges that they murdered 2,116 children in the Sacred Heart orphanage they operated at Canton for the Order of the Immaculate Conception.

'Guilty' Say 23 Accused Of Spying

LONDON (UP)—All 23 persons accused in Bucharest of being American and British spies have pleaded guilty, Communist radio broadcasts said today in reporting the latest in a series of purge-show trials in Soviet satellite countries.

There are no American correspondents in Bucharest today and the trial is covered by official Soviet and Romanian agency correspondents. Broadcasts by Moscow radio and Bucharest radio quoting Soviet Tass agency and Hungarian Agerpress dispatches are monitored in London.

80-Mile Wind Whips Britain

LONDON (AP). — A howling 80-mile-an-hour blizzard marooned three English villages today and whipped up dangerous new gales along the flood-battered east coast. The icy blasts piled snowdrifts up to six feet deep in parts of Northern England and Wales, blocking 16 main roads and stranding scores of vehicles.

Gale warnings in the surly North Sea spurred thousands of troops and volunteers racing to rebuild shattered sea and river defenses along the east coast.

Work in some sections had to stop during the night because of the gale. But early today troops and volunteers resumed bolstering defenses shattered in the great storm 10 days ago

B.C. Co-Ordinates Aid For Victims of Flood

A fund launched Monday by the B.C. government to aid reconstruction of flood-wrecked British homes will be open to donations from the public and industry, according to Premier W. A. C. Bennett.

The premier announced in the Legislature that the government has credited the fund with $100,000. It will be used solely for the purchase of B.C. lumber now in the United Kingdom.

The British home secretary has advised the government, he said, that "arrangements to release part of the B.C. lumber now in the United Kingdom would greatly speed up relief work which might not otherwise be freely undertaken, in so far as such work depends on timber, owing to the dollar shortage currently being experienced by the government of the United Kingdom."

The fund will be administered by W. A. McAdam, B.C. agent-general in Great Britain.

Donations may be sent to the fund in care of the Premier's office.

Premier Bennett has sent a wire to Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent recommending that the federal government allow all flood fund donations to be exempt from corporation and income tax.

He has also accepted the Prime Minister's invitation to serve on the national committee to aid all floor sufferers.

A KISS FROM THE MAESTRO

Symphony and Soloist Score Triumph in Difficult Task

By AUDREY ST. D. JOHNSON

Mary Hammond, 'cello soloist, whose performance of the exacting Haydn concerto in D major with the Victoria Symphony Orchestra, brought the salutation of a kiss on the forehead from reserved maestro, Hans Gruber: And the performance of the orchestra itself, which consistently, throughout the three programmed numbers, maintained a gratifying level, rising to true brilliance in the climax of the evening—the Sibelius second symphony.

In her playing of the 'cello concerto, Mary Hammond proved her capabilities as an executant of her instrument. Her depth as an artist has long been recognized. Last night she strengthened that impression, particularly in the middle and final movements.

Tensions betrayed in the first movement were not present in the lovely Adagio, nor in the finale. A tender serenity breathed through the shapely phrases of the slow section; there was a full realization of its lyricism, the tone warm, full and beautifully colored, amplifying the inherent poetry.

The brilliant left-hand technique, as well as a supple and cunning bowing arm, were much in evidence through flashing tempi and long, intricate cadenzas in the first and second movements.

As for the orchestra, it has learned very thoroughly, thanks to its conductor, the fine art of providing background for a soloist. With Gruber on the podium, there is no conflict; he holds the reins firmly and when he unleashes the orchestral powers, there is no break in the musical line, but a continuance with the orchestra taking the lead.

This evening of symphonic music ended as such evenings should end—on a high level of enthusiasm. To its first performance of Sibelius Concerto No. 2 in D, the orchestra gave its best.

And it was a better best than anything it has heretofore given. Perhaps because Gruber has never conducted with more inspiration and fire than he did in this work. Whatever might be said in the way of detailed criticism, the fact remains, that the orchestra got its teeth into the symphony and presented it with a spirit and truth that infected the audience with a wild and deserved enthusiasm.

ONE WOMAN'S DAY

By NANCY HODGES

BEAUTIFUL BIRDS

I DON'T KNOW whether it will still be showing here by the time this appears in print or not, but I am glad that I found the opportunity to see "Water Birds," the latest in the series of Walt Disney's wonderful nature films, which has been appearing at the Capitol Theatre.

Those who saw his earlier films in the series, "Seal Island," "Beaver Valley" and "Nature's Half-Acre," have just as great a treat in store in this marvellous study of the life of birds who live in or near the water, whether that be in the lakes, rivers or the sea.

ENTRANCING SIGHT

With his technicolor camera teams, Mr. Disney has scoured the waters from the Arctic to the tropics, spending more than a year in this amazing excursion into the domestic life and habits of the thousands of familiar, rare and lovely waterfowl and bringing them to the screen in all their enchanting color and grace.

One of the most entrancing spectacles is "The Bird Ballet of the Air." It shows pink flamingoes in slow flight against a superb sunset, every movement of body or wing the essence of fluid beauty, a perfection in rhythm. Individual birds achieve an impeccable standard of grace and beauty of line that transcends anything ever achieved by human exponents of the ballet.

FEATHERED COMEDIANS

The wide variety of birds shown ranges from flamingoes to egrets. Lovers of comedy—and birds—will enjoy the antics of the pelicans, and the comic situation of the baby pelican which dives too deeply into Ma's capacious maw for sustenance. Hilariously funny, too, are the Louisiana herons that run in pairs along the wet sands and in the shallows, perfectly co-ordinating their movements in their quaint mating dances.

In fact, through the whole of the film, its beauty is punctuated by touches of humor provided by the feathered comedians as they dance and dive, or go about their domestic business, chiding and cherishing their youngsters just like human parents.

CANADIAN BIRDS

Easterners will become nostalgic at the sight of the lovely gannets and other birds that throng the Gaspe coast and the islands of the St. Lawrence Gulf in their tens of thousands. The cliffs at Bonaventure Island, shown in detail, are a birds' giant apartment house, its only condition of tenancy evidently being "First come, first served, and no rent to pay!"

The sight of the birds pre-empting the best locations in defiance of all-comers reveals a sense of strategy and finesse which might well be the envy of human home-seekers. The late-comers occupy "basement" quarters on narrow ledges with amazing philosophy.

WIDE VARIETY

Among other varieties shown at their normal activities are tern; man-of-war birds which carry their young in a strange, scarlet, balloon-like pouch attached to the bill; coots, terns, grebes, pintailed ducks, cormorants, the purple gallinule, the black skimmer, avocets, curlews, dippers, water ouzels, the albatross, trumpeter swan, wood ibis, and dozens of other varieties.

For grown-ups the film is a pageantry of exquisite color, the epitome of the poetry of motion, combining all the entertainment features of delicious comedy and beautiful ballet. For children, it offers an enchanting and intimate peep into the wonders of Nature. For sheer education—plus entertainment value—it could hardly be surpassed, and I only wish it were possible for this, together with the rest of Mr. Disney's nature series, to be shown in every Canadian school.

'Daddy' of Artillerymen, Col. 'Shorty' Craig Passes

Colonel Charles Stuart Craig died while vacationing in Haiti. He had been 39 years with the Canadian Army, retiring in 1946 after serving in all parts of the Dominion, from Halifax to Esquimalt.

"He was a splendid man, whom I got to know very well in the East," said Lieut.-Col. Arthur Perron, commander of garrison troops here.

Col. Perron said the soldier was only in Victoria for a short while during his early days as a commissioned officer.

"He was the 'daddy' of all young artillerymen. Young officers who got into trouble always hit for his office. He'd raise Cain with his own troops but wouldn't stand for anyone else doing the same," said the colonel.

Soldiers still marvel at the resourcefulness and individuality of the man who built Canada's Atlantic defenses from a smattering of obsolete weapons to a formidable battle line in the early years of the Second World War.

Shorty Craig—he was a little over five feet tall—was prepared to get materials in unorthodox ways.

Modern armament was still lacking when he was assigned to build up the shore defenses on Nova Scotia's south coast. Shorty used the next best thing—a couple of powder-burning 10-inchers imported from Panama.

He remodelled the defenses of Halifax harbor which had been gathering rust and barnacles since 1900.

Duo Pianists Here March 3

The first B.C. appearance of Evelyn Eby and Reginald Bedford, outstanding Canadian duo pianists, will be in Victoria, assisting the Victoria Masonic Choir at its annual concert in Victoria High School March 3.

These duo pianists merged their talents at an early age and have gained wide recognition in Canada for the distinctive quality of their music. Evelyn Eby, through her concerts and coast-to-coast radio broadcasts, and Reginald Bedford through varied activity as head of the piano department, Halifax Conservatory, organist and choirmaster of All Saints' Cathedral, Halifax, principal of the Hamilton Conservatory and musical festival adjudicator, and examiner for the Royal Conservatory of Music of Toronto.

In 1949 they appeared in New York for the first time, playing a most successful concert in Town Hall.

GIVE 'EM DINNER

DAVENPORT, Ia. (UP)—Fred W. Snyder made provision in his will for "a nice dinner for my pallbearers" and "an ice cream social" for the orphans in the social home, probate court revealed yesterday.

MAMMOTH RIVER PROJECT HELD UP

OTTAWA (BUP) — The long-projected South Saskatchewan River power and irrigation project appeared destined today for another indefinite postponement although members of parliament from all parties wanted immediate action.

Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent told the Commons Monday night he was not prepared to launch the project until a further enquiry had been made to determine whether some better use could be made of the waters of the South Saskatchewan River.

He said, however, he was not afraid of the cost of the huge irrigation dam and power plant, which a federally-appointed royal commission said would cost $250,000,000. A large part of this cost would be borne by the provincial government of Saskatchewan.

"The project is one of great magnitude, and it is one that will have to be believed by the whole of Canada to be a good reasonable project to undertake," Mr. St. Laurent said.

"Had there not been the suggestion in the (royal commission) report that it was quite possible there might be a better use to be made of that great national asset, I would have continued in the opinion that the creation of that body of water in the province of Saskatchewan would be a magnificent thing."

The prime minister's statement acted as a signal to Saskatchewan Liberals.

They immediately began announcing their support for the South Saskatchewan project and further investigations to determine whether any other plan would be more beneficial to the dry belt of southern Saskatchewan.

But at the same time, they announced they would vote against non-confidence motions proposed by John Diefenbaker (PC, Lake Centre) and Percy Wright (CCF, Melfort), criticizing the government for not having made a start on the dam. Passage of either of the motions would defeat the government.

RCMP Probing 8 Deaths in Alberta Fire

EDMONTON (BUP) — The RCMP and firemen today launched investigations into two fires which claimed the lives of seven children and a mother in Alberta in two days.

The worst tragedy was reported by the RCMP at Fort Vermilion, 350 miles north of here, where Mrs. Lawrence Lambert and five of her six children perished in their log home Saturday night.

The Mounties said the fire broke out when gasoline was accidentally poured into a kerosene lamp, which exploded and showered a downstairs room of the two-story building with flaming oil. Mrs. Lambert's oldest daughter escaped from the blaze with another resident, Mrs. Fred Smith, who suffered severe face burns.

Police were still trying to locate Lambert, a member of a survey party charting the boundary between northern Alberta and British Columbia.

Firemen had not determined the origin of the basement suite fire, which fatally burned one child and suffocated the other. Both were in bed while Mrs. William Pawliuk, 21, was visiting a neighbor.

First United Church History Told to Club

History of Victoria's First United Church was traced for members of the AOTS Men's Club Monday night by William T. Straith, MLA.

The church had its start in 1862, he said, and was the oldest Presbyterian church west of Winnipeg.

Congregation of the first church was 30. Today's membership, he noted in comparison, is more than 1,900.

Canadian Church Calls Negro Pastor

Magazine 'Munitions' Flow to Front Line

A total of 120 subscriptions to six magazines are now being sent to the 3rd Battalion of the PPCLI on the Korean front.

This is the result of an appeal made by Brig. W. G. Colquhoun, organizer of the Victoria Patricias' comforts fund, for fresh reading material for the troops. Brig. Colquhoun has received a letter from Lt.-Col. H. F. Wood, battalion commander, thanking him and all who contributed for "this fine morale builder."

CANADIAN CASUALTIES TOTAL 1,335

OTTAWA (BUP) — Canadian casualties in Korea totaled 1,335 on Jan. 31, a defense department report showed today.

It included dead, wounded and injured from all three services since Canadians began fighting in the Far East Feb. 22, 1951.

The Canadians went into action in Korea for the first time on Hill 614. They spearheaded a mountain-trail drive that trapped a large Communist force north of the Han River.

'Bootleg' Milk Ban Sought By Saanich

A report that several small dairy farmers in Saanich are selling milk without government inspection, was made by Councillor Roy H. Wootten at a council meeting Monday.

Mr. Wootten pointed out that these milk vendors have not been granted licenses to sell milk because their dairy farms are not up to the required sanitary standards set by the provincial government. In some cases conditions on the farms are a menace to public health, he said.

"I looked over the dairy farm of one vendor and I found it in a deplorable condition," said Mr. Wootten. "The animals looked sickly and the conditions under which they live are unsanitary."

"I think this has gone far enough," said councillor Stanley Eden. "We should take this matter to the Minister of Health and Welfare. The health of the community is in danger by having these dairy farms in operation."

"It is up to them to take action," he said. "We can't do anything.

Council decided to ask livestock commissioner Dr. W. R. Gunn to take action against vendors who are selling milk without government inspection.

"If Dr. Gunn does nothing about the matter, then we will go to the Minister of Health," said the reeve.

Bill to Ban Dairy Substitutes Among First Introduced to House

In a sudden splurge of activity, the provincial government introduced 11 bills to the Legislature on Monday.

Topping the list was a bill amending the Creameries and Dairies Regulation Act providing for banning sale of all dairy product substitutes, except margarine.

The ban is aimed at vegetable oils which can be used instead of butterfat in the manufacture of evaporated milk, whole milk, filled cheese, and ice cream.

Notice of the new legislation was given last week by Agriculture Minister Kenneth Kiernan.

The Coal Act and the Petroleum and Natural Gas Act have been amended to take their administration out of the lands and forests department, and place it under the mines department.

It is understood some work in administering the two acts was being duplicated.

Two other bills, also introduced by Mr. Sommers, call for repeal of the Garibaldi Park Act and Mount Robson Park Act.

If approved by the House, administration of both these mainland parks, now run by private boards, would return to the parks division of the forestry department.

Appointment of both boards would be automatically rescinded.

A bill amending the Adoption Act provides for an adopted child to be a legal inheritant of the adopting parents. At present an adopted child has no right of inheritance.

An amendment to the Jury Act, providing for exemption of air line personnel from jury duty, is provided in a bill introduced by Attorney-General Robert Bonner.

Other forms of transportation now have the same exemption.

Ex-members of the Provincial Police, disbanded in August, 1950, will benefit under an amendment to the Police and Prisons Regulation Act.

The bill provides for distribution of $18,000 in a special fund to former members of the force "in proportion to their years of service."

The fund was built up over a long period by money paid for the purchase of discharges and pay due to deserters. The money was used for payment of rewards to policemen for long and meritorious service.

A bill amending the Irrigation Assistance Loan Act permits loans for domestic waterworks purposes as well as irrigation projects.

Wheeler-Bennett Will Write Life of King

Wheeler-Bennett, 50, wrote the official history of the Nuernberg war crimes trials and edited German foreign ministry archives captured by the British at the end of the Second World War.

David Conover and the Glamorous Monroe

MAN THE BOATS, MEN

Marilyn Will Visit The Gulf Islands

The ever popular golf islands are expected to be more crowded than ever this summer . . . Marilyn Monroe intends to visit there!

The news about the much publicized blonde star from the 20th Century Fox galaxy comes from David B. Conover, resort owner on Wallace Island. He "discovered" Miss Monroe toiling in a plane factory in 1945.

At the time he was a U.S. Air Force photographer who chanced to include a pretty girl named Norma Jean in some assembly line pictures. The results led him to suggest she take up modeling for his camera.

This idyllic arrangement lasted for several months and led to similar jobs with important cameramen that placed her face on four magazine covers in one month. Meanwhile, Mr. Conover went overseas.

With the war's end he settled with his wife on Wallace Island and began developing a resort. Last month, while holidaying in California Mrs. Conover found his name in a movie magazine story about Marilyn Monroe, where she credited him with starting her on her career.

It was the first he had heard of the transition of Norma Jean to Marilyn Monroe. . . . (Where had this boy been?)

He collected a great big kiss at the studio soon after, where Marilyn and Jane Russell were matching smiles and stuff for "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes," and now Marilyn intends to visit the Wallace Island Resort this summer. She added mysteriously, "Maybe on a honeymoon."

Workmen Seek Protection From Douks

Power Line Bombings Cause Union Protest

The executive of the AFL International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, Nelson Local 1003, has warned Attorney-General Robert Bonner that if this condition is allowed to continue it will have to take legal action to safeguard linemen.

There have been periodic bombings of transmission lines in the east and west Kootenays, the latest near Nelson last week.

In a letter to the attorney-general, the union executive said: "Linemen are becoming more reluctant to perform their duties under these conditions. Where human life is at stake, the department should put an end to such practices."

Three linemen who fought a dynamite-set fire at the base of a power pole last week found later that they had used a sack of blasting powder to beat out the flames. The sack had been picked up in the darkness at the site of the fire.

Peace Treaty Meets Delay

LONDON (CP) — Hopes for early conclusion of a peace treaty with Austria faded Monday when the four-power deputy ministers adjourned their talks without fixing a date for another meeting.

The talks were resumed here last Friday after a lapse of two years. However, they bogged down immediately on an old dispute—Russia's insistence that Britain, the United States and France withdraw their shortened eight-point treaty draft.

The Western powers offered to shelve for the time being discussion of the shortened draft, drawn up to replace the original 50-article treaty which has been under discussion since 1946.

Abbott to Ask For New Job

Finance Minister Says He Is Growing Stale After Six Years in Present Post

OTTAWA (CP)—Finance Minister Abbott plans to ask Prime Minister St. Laurent for a new cabinet post, it was learned Monday.

The 53-year-old Montreal lawyer, who for six years has handled the country's purse strings, feels he is growing "stale" in his current job. He wants a change of cabinet scenery.

The budget he will bring down next week, he has told friends, will be his last one. There has been similar talk in the last two or three years, but this time it is definite.

His budget now scheduled for February 19 will be his seventh major money-raising task, in addition to small "baby" budgets — and that, he feels is enough.

He would like to become secretary of state or minister of justice, and feels he would be capable of handling these portfolios because of his legal training.

But one thing he's sure of—he has told friends he wouldn't take back the defense portfolio "not for a million dollars." He was defense minister in 1945.

The jaunty veteran of the First World War entered the federal political scene in 1940 and captured the Montreal riding of St. Antoine-Westmount. He became a cabinet minister five years later.

In his six years as finance minister he has reported six consecutive surpluses totaling about $2,236,000,000 and paring the national debt to $11,185,000,000 from $13,421,000,000.

Revenues collected under his budgeting reached a record total of $18,325,000,000 for the six years. What his February 19 budget will contain still is secret, but it appears likely he will announce another surplus—seventh in a row.

Fisheries Minister James Sinclair, 44, formerly parliamentary assistant to Mr. Abbott and member for Coast-Capilano, has been mentioned as the most likely candidate for the finance post if there is a change.

Radio, Film Firms Merge Interests

NEW YORK (AP) — Hotter competition for leadership among the networks, with radio listeners and television viewers the beneficiaries, is expected to result from a merger of the American Broadcasting Company and United Paramount Theatres Inc.

Officials of the two firms, to be merged as American Broadcasting-Paramount Theatres Inc., made it clear today they will seek to challenge the audience leadership of the Columbia Broadcasting System and the National Broadcasting Company.

The merger, to be effected through an exchange of stock, was given final approval Monday by the federal communications commission in Washington after months of hearings and deliberations. Stockholders of both corporations had approved plans for the merger in July, 1951.

United Paramount operates 710 movie theatres and one television station, while ABC owns five standard and five frequency modulation FM radio stations and five TV stations. It provides network program service to TV affiliates and more than 350 affiliated radio stations.

UN Bombers Blast Enemy Supply Depots

SEOUL, Korea (UP)—United Nations air force and navy bombers and fighter-bombers in round-the-clock raids today blasted Communist supply centres, bridges, rail lines and front line positions.

Sixteen American B-29 Superfortresses delivered the "big punch" dumping 320,000 pounds of bombs on twin supply centres near the Yalu River.

The Superfortresses from Okinawa hit Charyon-Gwan, a key railway hub 25 miles southeast of Sinuiju on the Manchurian border Monday night. The B-29's used radar to dump 16 tons of 500-pound bombs through a cloud cover.

11-Month-Old Quebec Strike Appears Over

LOUISEVILLE, Que. (CP)—An 11-month-long textile strike, during which blood was shed and the Riot Act read, appears to have collapsed with the return to work of many of the strikers at the local Associated Textiles plant.

The strikers, members of the Louiseville Textile Syndicate, an affiliate of the Canadian Catholic Confederation of Labor, walked out last March, asking a 20-cent hourly wage increase. Their pay then was 73 cents an hour.

Several incidents spotted the strike and Dec. 11 last strikers clashed with police. One man was wounded by a police bullet, several suffered other injuries and the Riot Act was read.

Company officials Monday said that while no agreement has been reached, there has been a mass return of former employees seeking jobs and many already rehired.

There was no announcement from union leaders following a closed meeting Sunday night, and no comment on Monday's company announcement.

Reeve Claims Law Blocks Concessions to Workers

The main requests of both inside and outside municipal employees at Oak Bay, currently engaged in contract negotiations, cannot be met under the Municipal Act, said Oak Bay Reeve P. A. Gibbs, MLA, today. He was reporting on progress of the bargaining talks.

Medical Services Association coverage has been the main concession sought this year, although outside workers seek one additional statutory holiday. The Union of B.C. Municipalities last year urged amendment to the act in order to allow municipalities to provide the protective plans, but so far the situation is unchanged.

Oak Bay firemen, who have asked pay boosts to equal city firemen, are still in negotiation also. The increase would be approximately $22 a month for first-class firemen.

Policemen have succeeded in having their work week lowered to 40 hours from 44. The police commission will hire one more policeman.

Norman Boyd Appeal

TORONTO (BUP)—The Ontario Appeal Court reserved judgment Monday on an appeal by Norman Boyd, younger brother of gangleader Edwin Alonzo Boyd, against his conviction for bank robbery.

Boyd appealed from his conviction of helping brother Edwin and William Jackson stage a $48,000 armed holdup of a branch of the Royal Bank of Canada here in 1951. The younger Boyd received a three-year prison term.

Professor Gauges Soviet Power, Puts Finger on Weakness in War

By PETE LOUDON

War with Russia did not seem so close Monday night to those who heard UBC professor Dr. H. F. Ronimois at Victoria College here.

The Russian-born head of the Slavonic studies department outlined the strengths and weaknesses of the Soviet in a critical analysis that indicated that Communism is not ready to take on Capitalism in a fight to the finish . . . at least not yet.

Dr. Ronimois, who was educated in Estonia, Sweden and England, is recognized as an outstanding economist and author.

He said that there are weaknesses in Russia that will keep the Reds from getting involved in a shooting war.

GERMANY—BUT QUESTION

The $64 question, he cautioned, would be whether Germany would emerge from her present status as a belligerent or a neutral state in any future conflict.

"This is the problem," he said, which took American Secretary of State Dulles to Europe."

Having a neutral country on her flank would allow Russia to concentrate on Asia, with possible fatal results, he stated.

One of the Russian weaknesses is a human factor, the fact that 50 per cent of her people are of non-Russian origin, including 179 different language groups which might splinter away in a crisis, Dr. Ronimois said.

MILLION SURRENDERED

"Over 1,000,000 Russian troops surrendered to the Germans in two battles," he added; but he admitted that when they found what Hitler was like they turned on him again.

Russians who have been abroad, as well as the two-thirds of the population who are peasants and who are discriminated against by industrial workers, also weaken the state's unity, the professor declared.

The Russian productive system, based on severe indirect taxation of the people and a "compulsory delivery system" on the collective farms, would quickly deteriorate in a "hot war," according to the speaker. The system is built on the idea of everyone watching someone else and would be hard to maintain in an emergency.

STEEL FOR ARMS

Industrially, Russia produces only half the steel of the United States, though a greater production goes into armament, he said. But much is wasted due to poor manufacturing. Up to 50 per cent is scrapped when it is produced in some factories, he maintained.

The current five-year plans calls on the satellite states to produce 40 per cent of Russia's steel. By 1955 her production for war will equal that of the U.S., according to Dr. Ronimois.

NO ATOM BOMB

Of prime interest was the professor's belief that Russia does not have the atom bomb, or if she has, it is not a very effective one. He also believes that the recent Jewish purge is not aimed at any one national group but at internationally-minded men.

He said Communist ideologies have altered in recent years with the teachings of Marx dying out. The churches and the state have come to a tolerant agreement where the church does not attack the government and the state gives church leaders immunity from physical difficulties at least.

Founder with Foresight

In the days when British Columbia cities were being hewn out of giant forest stands, few men foresaw the tremendous future in store for Canada's Pacific Province.

One man who did was William Braid. In 1904, he founded the Province's first distillery—The British Columbia Distillery Company Limited in New Westminster.

At a time when that city's population was a mere nine thousand, William Braid was laying the firm foundations . . . setting the policy of quality . . . for an industry that has played an increasingly important part in B.C.'s economic development.

Since 1904, the Company has steadily expanded its facilities to meet the growing demand for its quality products at home and in the markets of the world.

Today, the modern British Columbia Distillery on New Westminster's Braid Street stands as tangible evidence of the foresight of its founder—William Braid.

Back to Mercantilism

IN 1934, SAYS THE SATURDAY Evening Post, the late John Maynard Keynes called the United States the greatest economic laboratory in the world. "After almost two decades of experience, in this country and England, and with a conservative tide setting in, it has become apparent that Old Doctor Keynes' Indian Remedy was the same old mixture as before. Academic economists knew it all along. Now they can come out of their cyclone cellars and identify the remains of the Planned Economy as an old fraud named Mercantilism."

As every university sophomore knows, Mercantilism was the economic system prevailing in the great nations of the world until about the middle of the 19th century. Its method was state control of foreign trade, mainly through the tariff and, in the case of Britain, the great trader, through the Navigation Acts, which channeled the raw products of the colonies into the British factories. And the basic theory of Mercantilism held that if a nation exported more than it imported and thus acquired gold from its customers in payment it would thereby become rich in the well-known fashion of King Midas.

The Saturday Evening Post now damns the new age of Mercantilism as an alien importation, invented by a British economist, Keynes. The high irony of such a statement seems to escape the editors of The Post. For what nation, long before the time of Keynes and his pupil, Roosevelt, perpetually practiced the basic theory of Mercantilism, persisted in exporting more than it imported and presently found itself in possession of most of the world's gold? None other, of course, than the United States. Who was the architect and Midas of this system? None other than the Republican party of the United States, which The Post supports.

The Keynsian theory of economics can safely be left to take care of itself and is doing very well. You might almost say, indeed, that the world is locked today in a struggle between Keynes and Marx, the most influential economic thinkers of all time.

The practical question before the free world is not whether Keynes was right or wrong but whether the United States will continue to practice Mercantilism, buy far less than it sells abroad and thus assure a shortage of gold, dollars and goods in other countries—a shortage which the United States, with unparalleled generosity and goodwill, has relieved from time to time with foreign gifts and loans.

That generosity and goodwill are beyond comparison and beyond praise. But it is a plain perversion of history and rather silly as well to blame the Mercantile trading policy of the United States on Keynes and Roosevelt whom it long preceded, going back for some hundred years.

If Keynes were alive to defend himself he would certainly say that most of his theories have been grossly caricatured (like those of Marx), that the United States practice of selling more than it buys has nothing to recommend it, that The Post and its Republican high-tariff friends, instead of blaming foreigners, should look into a mirror.

Unusual and Confusing

LAST WEEK TWO MINISTERS spoke in the Throne Speech debate. They, it appears, will be the only Social Credit members to be heard in that particular phase of the session.

The charge that back-benchers in the party had been muzzled has been denied by the premier. They could, he said, speak if they wished. No one would compel them to speak if they did not want to.

The unusual procedure which finds these government members silent leaves the public with little knowledge of their points of view. Whatever the reason, they have chosen silence. By that choice the voices of their constituents remain unheard. The legislature, where ideas and concepts from all parts of the province are usually expressed, particularly in the Throne Speech debate, is left uninformed on their thinking.

So far, incidents have served to prove his statement. This is an unusual session.

But so, too, has been the period from the time Mr. Bennett was invited to form the government. His cryptic statements and the misconstruction placed upon them relative to calling a session and the date of an election, were unusual — so unusual that they were not understood by trained observers of the political scene.

Health Minister Martin's announcement on hospital insurance premiums — his statement on non-prosecution for non-payment — and the following no less cryptic explanation by the premier, have left that question in the air.

There have been inconsistencies in pronouncements by different members of the cabinet. There have been puzzling expressions of regret that no Vancouver Island member has resigned to give Social Credit representation from the Island. An atmosphere of confusion has been created in the public mind.

The session is young yet. It has been unusual in a number of respects. But it is surely not too much to hope that the premier will seize an early opportunity to clarify issues, state in unequivocal terms the policies his government is pursuing, and inform the public on vital elements of its own business. That, it seems, would be a better way to build public confidence.

Wage Pattern Levelling Off

SCHOOL TEACHERS OF GREAter Victoria have been given a 4 per cent increase in salaries. That was the award of an arbitration board majority which heard their requests for raises running from 12 to 37 per cent. A minority report filed by the member representing the school board would have left salaries as they were.

The pattern of the wage increase followed that of two major awards in recent months. Last July the woodworkers of the province returned to work from their strike with a fractional gain only in their rates of pay. More recently Canada's railways' escaped a strike when certain unions seeking substantial wage increases settled for a small part of their original demands.

In other words, the teachers—and there was no strike threat voiced by them—have been confronted by a stern economic fact. The day of easy and almost automatic big salary increases is over. It is over because money is becoming tighter. The taxpayer's dollar is being watched more closely.

This, doubtless, was understood by other members of the city's staffs when they announced some time ago that they would seek no increases this year.

The decision of the arbitration board considering teachers' salaries will increase school costs fractionally. That addition to the school budget should not be crippling. Its smallness should, however, emphasize the trend noticed in other wage fields.

Left undetermined by the award is a larger question. Will the salary scale now provided attract into the profession sufficient numbers of the right type of young men and young women to carry the teaching load still mounting as the school population continues to grow? That is a vital problem for the years immediately ahead.

Plea for Thoughtfulness

THE CANADIAN NATIONAL Institute for the Blind is now observing "White Cane Week." This is a period in which everyone with sight is asked to show some special consideration for those who are sightless.

There is nothing exacting about this consideration. It involves merely the little courtesies that can be extended to those who cannot see—little curtesies such as helping white-cane carriers to cross an intersection, assisting them to catch the right bus, and giving them their location if they become lost.

White cane week is a plea for thoughtfulness more than anything else. It draws the public's attention to the gift people who can see may bestow upon those who cannot, at the expense of only a minute or two of time.

Things Look Different Back Stage

LOOSE ENDS

Farewell

BY BRUCE HUTCHISON

THROUGH the window of the Pullman car where this is written the coastal traveler can see one of the primary facts of Canada. He is not likely to think much about it for we, on the coast, well insulated against such things by our perfumed climate, are not much interested in primary facts. But there it is, just outside the frosted window—the lone and level prairies stretching far away and covered by hardly an inch of snow.

Hutchison

The lack of snow is the primary fact, far more important than most of the debates of our statesmen (which often are not an inch thick either).

That endless, cold, drab sweep of plain looks dead beyond revival; yet within eight weeks or so it will surge up into life and on it the lives of millions of people will depend. In the end they will depend on the moisture of this rich soil between the mountains and the lakes.

AT the moment the prospects (at least to the ignorant coastal eye) don't look good. The snow is not thick enough to water the soil and nourish this year's crop. Of which the results can be calamitous not only to the prairie farmer but to the whole nation and to hungry peoples outside it.

There lies one of the many differences between our coast and these prairies. Our crop stands a hundred feet or more high, it is several hundred years old and a season or several seasons of drought will not greatly affect it. We can always cut trees so long as there are any to cut. The prairies, every year, are at the mercy of a few inches of rain.

They have produced a long series of huge crops since the first war years. They have poured food out to the world and money into Canadian pockets. But before that the eight or nine years of drought reduced the prairies to a shifting mass of dust and thistle, the farmers to desperate poverty.

SUCH is the cycle of nature as it must have operated here for a thousand centuries, fattening or starving the buffalo and the Indians who followed them. And no Canadian, however, insulted, can escape that cycle.

Is another dry spell under way after these recent lush years? That is the primary question in these regions which no policy of government, no redistribution of wealth, none of man's cunning arrangements can possibly evade. For all our science, our tools and our apparent mastery of environment, for all our wealth and statistics and clever management, this country is at the hazard of a few rain clouds and searing winds.

THAT, you will say, is obvious. Yes, and therefore generally ignored. You would think, to hear some intelligent people talk, that Canada, because it is rich and fortunate at the moment, had the world by the tail and could afford to ignore it altogether.

It is only when you observe the frozen white platter of the central plains and remember that its crop is controlled absolutely by the weather and the market—it is only then that you begin to understand how vulnerable, brittle and naked we stand in the full winds of the world.

AND it is only when he leaves the train for a five-minute walk along some lonely station platform that the soft coastal dweller realizes how the great majority of the nation lives. Two minutes were enough for me. The porter said it was a mild morning, hardly zero and just like Vancouver. I staggered back into the warm train, certain that my ears were frozen, and in ordinary decency I refused to tell the porter that snowdrops and crocuses were abloom in my garden at home, that spring already had disembarked on the shore of Vancouver Island and was settling down for a long visit.

A MAN who leaves the coast at this time of year is a certifiable lunatic. I am expecting to receive my certificate, neatly engraved and signed by some eminent physician like Bobby Hunter, at any moment. Before I pass through the gate and enter the spacious asylum of the world I thought, this morning, that I would send back a word of farewell to remind you, who live warm among crocuses, how most of Canada lives cold in the path of the Arctic blizzards and wonders, at this season, not whether the flowers will bloom but whether the wheat will grow.

Too Many Things Go Wrong

Edmonton Journal

THE United Church Observer has shocked many people with its claim that the Toronto gunmen Suchan and Jackson, hanged last month, took 50 minutes to die. It cites this as an argument against hanging as a method of execution, which it calls a "sadistic spectacle shocking to the Christian conscience."

A growing number of Canadians will support the Observer on this point. Quite apart from the question of abolishing capital punishment itself, all decent persons are agreed that death sentences should be carried out in as quick, painless and certain a manner as possible. Hanging does not meet this requirement.

Too many things can go wrong, and when they do the results may be horrible.

The trouble, however, lies in finding a better mode of execution. If the authorities put their minds to it, however, they should be able to devise an improvement.

Feb. 10, 1933—Primarily owing to weather conditions, wholesale egg prices for fresh extras have risen six cents a dozen to 26 cents, but retail prices which should normally be 30, are being kept at 28 cents.

As Our Readers See It

ON THE JOB?

Orders in council by our legislatures seem to be very popular with our political representatives. I'm not asking why, but for information as to the number of such orders passed since the new government of B.C. took office.

The governing of a country is big business, and the employees of big business punch a time clock upon entering and leaving their place of work. The integrity of our elected representatives is taken for granted, but I think their employers, the electorate, should be fully informed as to their activities while the legislature is in session. Are they always on the job?

Perhaps if this were done the number of orders in council would be greatly reduced, and possibly eliminated. This should apply not only to provincial legislatures but to the federal also.

THE MYSTERIES

Many sincere and capable men from centuries past have set themselves the task of bringing the light of available intellect to the mystery of God, the creation of life, and the laws of the earth and the universe.

Fashion and tradition have been directing influences, often setting aside examination of contradicting claims. After all has been said that is likely to be of considerable value, the truth will be found.

An instinct common to all men speaks of a supremacy, a constant power and goodness in nature at large, or a driving force called Fate or Karma or Destiny.

INVESTIGATION

It is gratifying to note that the present government has seen through the rather questionable benefit to be derived from having a management firm brought in to investigate the operation of the various government departments.

The insult which the former government gave the civil servants of this province has been recognized by this government. I am referring to those comments on the management firm's report on the Hospital Insurance Service, and wonder if a closer examination of this report would bring to light some interesting facts about this firm's approach to the whole civil service administration.

I wonder if the report on every department which was examined contains the similar useless material to that quoted in the press, for if they do then it is obvious that the hundreds of thousands of dollars that was spent in engaging this firm was wasted.

It would be interesting to know who promoted the hiring of this firm and why.

R. K. RALPHS.

CARE OF THE AGED

The report of Miss Baird re aged women, while long past due is encouraging. These facts have been known by some of us for a long time, and the solution to the problem could not be found for various reasons—a "hush hush policy" or "we can do nothing about it."

How many old people can pay the unreasonable fees extracted by these commercial nursing homes?

How many aged have the sum of $1,000 a month?

Why should persons be forced to pay into the BCHIS and then refused nursing care?

It is up to the young and old to take cognizance of this very serious and un-Christian state of affairs, and demand that a solution be found, and that without delay.

NOT BIBLICAL?

The enthusiastic endorsation by your Church Page editor of the Belief in Yourself series now appearing in the Times leads to a closer inquiry as to the nature of the beliefs referred to in these articles.

There is of course much common sense in Dr. Peale's writings, concerning self control and so on, and perhaps he would be the first to admit that the substance of what he is saying has already been said by thinkers and writers, heathen and Christian alike, through the centuries.

But your Church Page editor, even more than Dr. Peale perhaps, identifies this teaching with Christianity even though it goes no further than to offer a way of living which will make men more successful and happy in this present life. Promises are quoted from the Bible as if they were the common property of all men, and all in the name of Christianity.

That this is not a Biblical Christianity is quickly evident when we consider some of the essential facts of the Christian revelation such as the eternal being of man and his sinful nature, the need and possibility of salvation through our Lord's death on the cross, and the requirement that men shall choose to accept or reject this salvation.

SOMETHING UPLIFTING

One of the most joyful happenings. Thanks to you, in our 1953 newspaper, wonderful daily items telling us how to live, by N. V. Peale, DD.

To read something that is uplifting, how to renew our thinking, how to deal with our worries. The items are priceless.

We read so much of war threats, of everything that's depressing, etc., God bless you and more power to your paper. This kind of publication will bring a larger circulation. It cannot lose.

More Pupils, Smaller Dollar

It is true that school costs have increased, but are our schools to be penalized by the inflated dollar? School population increases of nearly 50% are only one cost factor, allowance must be made for the 50c (or less) dollar we are all using today. Take the so-called normal 1939 (depression level) school costs, increase these by 50% to allow for the increased school population, then double this figure to allow for the inflated dollar, and you will find that actual school costs today are near this figure. I challenge that this is equal to or better than any other public service expenditure in economy.

I could agree, perhaps, that it is unfortunate our building has to be made through borrowing; however, every other means has been investigated and discarded so that the present method is the only one allowed by law.

The reason for so much building today should be no problem, to intelligent thought. During the depression years, when perhaps public building should occur, is there any doubt as to the defeat of any bond by-law in those times?

Then, of course, we had a number of years of war when no building could occur. After the war the high costs involved caused many conscientious boards to limp along, hoping for a reduction. However, such never occurred and all boards are now in a position where all existing schools are plugged with B.C.'s finest product, our children.

Add to that the numbers housed in dilapidated, outmoded, and even some dangerous buildings, plus those in substandard rooms, basements and old annexes, and the need for B.C.-wide building for schools should not be hard to understand if an effort is made to understand.

Reference recently has been made to a "uniform palatial fashion" in school construction. I have seen many of these schools and they consist of a site, foundation, four walls and a roof, plus the necessary heating and plumbing materials. What should we leave out?

Comment has also been made that rural districts must have half-million-dollar edifices all at once. I presume that this would refer to the general principle involved in secondary school building where it is found more efficient and more economical to build one centrally located $500,000 school than seven or eight scattered buildings for $100,000 each. To understand this better we could perhaps refer to an instance where two rival newspapers found it economical and efficient to share the same building and same press.

In closing, I can truthfully say with all sincerity that our school budget is not out of line in any respect, save perhaps, the capital building account, which is after all an accumulation of 25 years of no building. This whole figure in capital cost should not be charged to the schools of today but should be interpreted as an investment that will serve for the next five generations at least.

Sun Spots and Snowfall

In October, 1950, this writer made public, and sent to the heads of state in English-speaking countries a natural science thesis on the strong possibility of abnormally severe climatic conditions over the earth's surface, heavy snowfall, rainfall and flooding, due to the effect of sun spots, interposed between the earth and the sun during a ten-year period in a fifty-year recurring cycle.

A copy of this thesis was sent to the Rt. Hon. Clement Attlee, British prime minister at the time, and to the Rt. Hon. Winston Churchill.

How much faith they placed in my words or scientific observations I do not know, that is their responsibility. Knowledge, and wisdom, like real love, force themselves on no one. They are sought and accepted by those who value them.

Last month, this area had 12 inches of rain. By the grace of God it fell as rain. With northerly winds prevailing and a few degrees lower temperature, it could have been snow. How much? Ten feet of it. One inch of rain equals ten inches of snow.

We are hoping that the mild weather we have experienced, the budding trees, the early robins, presage an early spring. We are not sure. Both trees, and birds, and humans, have been deceived before and suffered for it.

However, may I give the following warning to everyone in this area who could be affected by a recurrence of heavy snowfall. The ten-year period of sun spot influence has 5½ years still to elapse. If in that time a similar snowfall occurred, what plans or facilities have they for dealing with the problems involved? The population is now greater. One automobile for every five in population was not then (in 1916) a fact. Business volume of all kinds, at all levels, was much lower. Wages, prices were lower. The economic disruption and loss would be greater in this area.

THE BENTLEY EXECUTION

The unarmed bobby represents the sanctity of law in Britain, and so long as he is unarmed, his person must be specially protected. . . In the dives off Tottenham Court Road and in Soho, in back alleys of the East End, in the slums of Glasgow and Liverpool—all the places where British criminals gather—there was no misunderstanding. They knew well what Derek Bentley's execution meant.

It is necessary to spend thought on economics and politics, but it is disastrous to let them absorb all our thoughts and emotions. If we do so, they become an obsession. We no longer think sanely about them, and we shut ourselves off from all the good things that are not connected with them.

Bridge Dedicated to Famous Artist

Dedication of this stonework bridge to the memory of her famous sister was made by Miss Alice M. Carr at Beacon Hill Park, Monday. She donated the bridge herself. With Miss Carr are Val Hennell, close family friend, at right, and Jan Zach, internationally-known painter and sculptor, now resident here.

Emily Carr's Admirers Deplore Lack of Fitting B.C. Memorial

The criticisms followed a small private ceremony at Beacon Hill Park, where Miss Alice M. Carr dedicated a bridge she had donated to her sister's memory.

Art lovers deplored the fact that the only memorial to Miss Carr should have to be built by her sister.

Curator of the Arts Centre here, Colin Graham, said today: "It is a pity it had to wait for private donors to pay tribute to a person who has brought so much honor to the city."

Jan Zach, Victoria teacher, who is known throughout Europe and South America for his contributions to the world of art, added: "One would like to see the city taking steps to create a worthy memorial."

Mr. Zach continued: "Emily Carr was the greatest painter this province has produced, possibly Canada's greatest."

The stone bridge crosses one of the little streams that feeds Goodacre Lake. It is built on a spot beloved to the late Miss Carr, visited often in her late years. An inscribed plaque is set into the bridge wall.

Victoria parks commissioner W. H. Warren thanked Miss Alice Carr for the graceful memorial in the presence of a small group of officials and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Val Hennell, close friends of the Carr family for many years, attended Miss Carr at the dedication. Also present were Ald. Waldo Skillings, Mr. Graham and Mr. Zach.

Little Girl Burned In Freak Accident

Valerie Singlehurst, 11, of 950 Nicholson, received face and neck burns in a freak accident near her home Sunday.

She was hit in the face with a piece of blazing tarpaper one of a group of boys burning refuse in a yard had pulled off the fire and flung aside.

Mrs. Paul Pepin, 947 Nicholson, rushed out and pulled the sticky tarpaper from the girl's face. She was treated at St. Joseph's Hospital.

Prison Term Checks Cat Man's Career

VANCOUVER (CP) — Two years of high living ended Monday for 36-year-old Roland Desrochers of Montreal who admitted 80 "cat burglar" thefts from Vancouver homes. His loot was valued at $40,000.

He was sentenced to 10 years in prison after police recited the fantastic history of the "cat man."

His second-story work was not confined to Vancouver. He spent a holiday in Hollywood where he robbed five homes, visited Victoria—one home robbed—and later returned to Montreal where, he said, he is wanted for burglary and bail jumping.

It was his car that got him into trouble. He parked it in a no-parking area—a $2 offense. The car was impounded.

Police found a revolver and later located burglary loot in his room.

Police said he could crawl up the face of a brick building almost devoid of handholds or along slight edgings of wooden structures. He took falls with the skill of a paratrooper.

EDMONTON (CP) — Marius Gerard, 49-year-old Cree Indian, died on the gallows early Tuesday at nearby Fort Saskatchewan Jail for the knife murder of the woman with whom he had been living.

NEW YORK

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market began gaining a little ground today after four straight sessions of declines. The tendency to move ahead showed up in several major groups although there were a substantial number of declines in the list.

Canadian issues were higher. Canadian Pacific and International Nickel added ⅛s, Dome Mines ⅜s, and Hiram Walker was up ¼. McIntyre advanced ½ and Distillers Seagram slipped ⅜s.

Toronto

Base metals moved lower, losing about half a point on the exchange's index. Industrials and western oils were mixed and golds showed a small gain.

Higher priced base metals weakened as Labrador lost three-eighths of a point and most others followed.

Industrials were mixed as papers, foods, refining oils and miscellaneous issues gained.

London Low Ebb

LONDON (Reuters) — Business was at a low ebb on the London stock exchange today—the last day of the account. However, a firm undertone was maintained.

Foreign bonds were quiet. Japanese lost up to two points then steadied. Germans held early small improvements.

Among South African gold shares the emphasis was again on the Freddies group—but the improvements were maintained largely on Cape support.

MORE MONEY

Business Turnover Up Sharply in Victoria

By BURKE CAHILL, Times Business Editor

Cahill

Victoria's dollar total of cheques cashed for 1952 jumped 13.8 per cent over the previous year, according to official figures on national bank clearings just issued by Ottawa.

The sharp increase in money turnover for this city was a bigger gain than the 12 per cent rise shown in 1952 for all Canada.

Victoria's cash boost also outstripped the climb of 12 per cent for the whole of B.C.

And it beat the advances made by the other two clearing house centres of the province, Vancouver's rise of 11.7 per cent and New Westminster's gain of 2.5 per cent.

BUSINESS GAIN

Moreover, this city's rise in money turnover resulted mainly from an increase in business payments, rather than from heavier personal spending.

Dollar total of current account cheques cashed here soared 47.6 per cent for December, 1952, over the same month a year earlier, while savings account totals rose only 11.9 per cent.

For the same periods, Vancouver business cheques were worth a mere 7.3 per cent more and personal drafts rose 9.5 per cent.

Admitedly there's a way to go. Total value of Vancouver's cheques for the year was $9,193,883,000 against Victoria's $1,425,392,000.

But at this rate (that is, a 47 per cent climb in business money turnover here versus 7.3 for

'Get Down to Business', Forget Early Election, Government Told

A 24-year veteran of municipal politics told the provincial government Monday to stop fretting about getting an early election "and get down to business and show us what you can do."

He was former Vancouver alderman George Miller, now Progressive Conservative member for Vancouver-Point Grey in the Legislature.

Stating the position of the two-man PC group in the House, Mr. Miller said the PC's will give the government support on all reasonable measures.

"There is a tremendous backlog of government business to be carried out," the Tory said. "Let's get it done. The average citizen is fed up with costly elections anyway."

The government, he continued, has a good chance to accomplish a lot because there are three political parties in the House willing to give their support "if the government behaves itself."

The Social Credit government, Mr. Miller contended, does not have to worry about being thrown out of office.

WORK WAITING

"We're not looking for a short session. There is important work to be done—such as the new Vancouver charter," he said.

Illustrating the financial problems of municipalities, the Vancouver-Point Grey member showed how Vancouver's school costs had increased from $5,895,000 in 1948 to $10,556,000 in 1952, while government grants to the city in the same time had only increased from $1,492,000 to $1,652,000.

"And the same pattern can be applied to most municipalities in the province," Mr. Miller declared. "It shows how the municipalities are suffering."

Municipalities, he explained, can only receive revenue from property taxes despite the fact their responsibilities have doubled in recent years.

PARLEY SUPPORTED

He said he supported the suggestion that a conference of federal, provincial and municipal governments be held "to try and define the duties and responsibilities of each."

The MLA acknowledged the provincial government has given the municipalities revenue from the 3 per cent sales tax.

"But the municipalities suggested the tax, and only got 1 per cent of the revenue for the good idea."

Education, he claimed, is a social service, and therefore its cost should not be burdened on any one group of persons more than anybody else.

"I feel for the small home owner," he said. "He's our best type of citizen, but he's being pinched more and more. People should be taxed, not only properties.

Mr. Miller came up with these suggestions for improving hospital services:

1. Extend convalescent home service to make more room in hospitals.

2. Extend home nursing facilities so patients can be discharged quicker from hospitals.

3. Allow partial exemption on hospital insurance premiums for low income groups.

Mr. Miller was one of the few speakers at the current session to get through his speech without any heckling.

$2,400 FINE FOR HOARDING 48 TICKETS FOR OVERPARKING

NEW YORK (UP)—It was a sad piece of cake the judge dished up for pretty vocalist Eileen Barton.

Miss Barton, who made a big hit with her recording of "If I Knew You Were Comin' I'd a Baked a Cake," went to court with her husband Monday to answer for 48 traffic tickets they had ignored.

Chief Magistrate John M. Murtagh was unmoved by a lawyer's argument that parking tickets were such minor matters they were easy to overlook.

The judge fined Miss Barton and her husband-manager Wynn Lassner $2,400, the highest fine so far in the current crackdown on New York ticket-hoarders.

Saanich Warned New Industries May Invade Residential Areas

Saanich residents were warned by Councillor Leslie Passmore Monday to be prepared for the establishment of industries in "residential" areas of the municipality in the near future.

Speaking on industrial zoning at a special council meeting, the councillor said industries are gradually seeking to move northward in the municipality where there is more room for expansion and development.

"There is nothing that can prevent this," he said. "It is progress. So it is only natural that industries will have to be put in residential areas."

Mr. Passmore pointed out the council had the right to permit industries to establish themselves in any residential area in the municipality.

"What then should be the policy when people of a residential area are against the establishment of an industry in their district?" asked Mr. Passmore.

"In my opinion the council should rezone the residential area for industry against the wishes of the residents if it thinks it is in the interets of the municipality," he said.

Movie Thieves Get $3,000 In Vancouver

VANCOUVER (CP)—Thieves made off with more than $6,000 in cash and valuable in Vancouver and New Westminster during the week-end.

Biggest haul was made by safecrackers, who broke into the safe at the Columbia Theatre in New Westminster and looted the drawers of $3,000 in small bills and silver. The safecrackers are believed to have hidden in the building after the Saturday night movie.

HOWE HONORED

MONTREAL (BUP) — Trade Minister C. D. Howe has been elected an honorary member of the Institution of Civil Engineers of Great Britain in recognition of his "distinguished services to Canada."

The Institute of Civil Engineers is the senior engineering institute in the world. It was established in 1818 and incorporated by Royal Charter in 1828.

THE GREEKS HAVE A WORD FOR IT

... WE MEAN the magic word that tells a mule to get going. It probably worked better than usual, recently, when Greek mule-drivers had to transport into the isolated interior, roofing materials needed for the construction of refugee shelters. The government purchased 2,000 tons of aluminum for the purpose — and incidentally licked the transportation problem.

Another nice thing about aluminum's lightness is that a given poundage goes two to three times as far as with other metals. It often means that aluminum, with all its advantages, actually costs less, too. Aluminum Company of Canada, Ltd. (Alcan).

1953 Chevrolet better than ever Advance-Design Trucks

(Continuation of standard equipment and trim illustrated is dependent on availability of material.)

For 1953, Chevrolet trucks offer new performance, new stamina, new safety and economy—and every model is even stronger, sturdier, more durable than those of past years!

The advanced Loadmaster, Torquemaster and Workmaster engines in all models deliver more power than has ever before been available in Chevrolet trucks. This big, husky, valve-in-head engine with a new high-compression ratio brings you finer performance, faster acceleration, greater hill-climbing ability and substantially greater gasoline mileage.

But that's only the beginning. You get all the proved features and advantages that have made Chevrolet trucks world-famous for their ability to handle the roughest jobs day after day at the lowest over-all cost to you!

Yet, even with all these greater advantages, 1953 Chevrolet trucks give you more for your money than any other trucks of comparable capacity and specifications. Drop in at our showroom and talk over your trucking needs. Let us show you how much more you get for your money with 1953 Chevrolet trucks.

A GENERAL MOTORS VALUE

CHEVROLET

4 powerful reasons why they are better than ever more engine power!

You get all the power you need with outstanding valve-in-head economy from Chevrolet's great new engines for 1953—the 108 h.p. Loadmaster, the 125 h.p. Torquemaster and the big 130 h.p. Workmaster—all with new high compression ratios.

Now, heavier, stronger, more durable frames increase rigidity, add to ruggedness and stamina of all 1953 Chevrolet trucks. Long famous for their ability to take the roughest jobs day after day, Chevrolet trucks are now brawnier, sturdier than ever.

In 1953, all Chevrolet trucks up to 1400 Series are equipped both front and rear with big, powerful "Torque-Action" brakes which make full use of truck momentum for greater stopping power. Series 1100, 1500, 1700 and 1800 heavy-duty trucks use extra-large "Torque-Action" brakes in front, "Twin-Action" type in rear. Both assure quick, smooth, safe stops — provide greater stopping power, greater durability than before.

The new and greater stamina of 1953 Chevrolet trucks, plus extra gasoline economy with improved valve-in-head engines, reduces hauling costs per ton-mile, brings you greater over-all economy throughout the long life of your trucks.

Merchants Take City Ice Title

Navy 6, Army 4
Merchants 8, Individuals 3

Time marches on and with it Jim Lackie and his Victoria Merchants continue to roll on and over all other competitors in the Commercial Hockey League.

Merchants Monday night assured themselves of the league crown by downing Individual Cleaners, 8-3, before a crowd of 1,700.

Merchants ran rough-shod over the Cleaners, who looked dead beat from the opening whistle and never actually came to life until the fleeting minutes of the contest.

EARLY LEAD

Merchants enjoyed a 5-0 first-period lead on a pair of goals by Toby Brown and singletons by John Smith, Bill Jensen and Norm LaCree.

The second canto was comparatively quiet with no goals and only one penalty being called. However, Merchants rapped home three markers and Individuals two in the final frame.

Joe Evans, although never overly exerting himself at any time throughout the game, was partly responsible for Merchants' victory by setting up a number of players with deadly accurate passes.

Navy pounded out a 6-4 decision over Army in the curtain raiser to climb into a third-place tie with Army with 13 points, two behind Individuals.

QUICK SCORING

Army got away to a flying start by banging in three goals in two minutes and 35 seconds, Bob Couter starting it off at 8.05, Bob Burrows coming through at 10.20 and Bill Rostek finding the range at 10.40.

Navy also got in on the act during that time interval with Del Brown opening up the sailors' barrage.

The veteran Burrows made it 4-1 at the 3.55-minute mark of the second canto and it was Navy day from there in.

Martin Fraser started the tars off at 4.15 and within three and one-half minutes, Roy Fogg and Russ McKay tied the score at 4-4.

One minor fight broke out between Army's Doug Grant and Navy's Dave Buick but both received only two minutes for unnecessary roughness.

Vics Capture Inter-High Rugby Opener

Victoria High School came up with six points in the second half to nip Esquimalt High School, 9-3, in the season's opening game of the Inter-High School Bantam Rugby League Monday at Victoria High.

Terry Turcotte put the Fernwood crew ahead in the opening moments of the contest but Bill Hussy of Esquimalt made good a try to tie it up at 3-3 at the half.

Allan Payne made it 6-3 for Victoria High on a penalty kick and Turcotte crashed over the line for his second try to give Victoria High the win.

FIGHT RESULTS

TORONTO—Arthur King, 140½, Toronto-Philadelphia, outpointed Alan McFater, 144¼, Toronto, 10.

Bosox Trade Stephens For Three Pitchers

CHICAGO (AP)—After putting a sleuth on the trail of Vern Stephens for a month to determine if his injured knee had mended, general manager Frank Lane of Chicago White Sox has traded Boston Red Sox out of the power hitter for three pitchers.

The Stephens deal was made Monday after White Sox scout Hollis Thurston, who has been spying on Stephens at his Long Beach, Calif., home, reported that Vern was as good as new after his injury of early last season.

The 32-year-old Boston shortstop-third baseman jammed his knee in a first-base collision with Dick Kryhoski in a game with Detroit Tigers.

To get Stephens, Lane gave up two righthanders, Marv Grissom and Hector Skinny Brown and Lefty Bill Kennedy. No cash was involved.

It was the second big deal by Lane in the last two weeks. The White Sox, third-place finishers in 1952, are going all out for their first American League pennant in 34 years.

On Jan. 28, Lane traded his only proven long-ball hitter, first-baseman Eddie Robinson, to Philadelphia Athletics for first-sacker Ferris Fain, a defensive gem and the league's leading batter the last two years.

In the last 51 months, Lane has made 155 deals involving 220 players.

Jansen Takes Pay Cut

The 32-year-old giant right-hander, whose victory total dipped from 23 in 1951 to only 11 last year, took "a slight cut" in pay Monday but reported that his back ailment was "completely recovered." The salary cut was estimated at $5,000.

Jansen thus became the 31st member of the Giants to sign, leaving only eight players on the club who still have to come to terms.

In Philadelphia today, Phillie owner Bob Carpenter was scheduled for a contract confab with slugging outfielder Del Ennis. Warming up to the job, Carpenter signed outfielder Mel Clark, who batted .335

Elsewhere in the majors, the Boston Braves announced the signing of four of their players—catcher Ebba St. Claire and rookies Ray Crone, Jim Solt and Jack Parks. Parks was formerly with Spokane of the WIL.

Big Luke Easter signed with Cleveland for an estimated $20,000 and while they were in a pen-and-ink mood, the Indians also signed rookie outfielder Mike Lutz.

Bob Rush, who won 17 games and lost 13 last season, dropped up to the Cubs' office and before he left, the club had his signed contract in its safe.

FIGURES DON'T LIE

Wings Value For NHL Lead

MONTREAL (BUP)—Dick Irvin, silvery-haired and silvery-tongued coach of the Montreal Canadiens, was asked whether he'd take the hockey player who scored 35 assists in a season or one who scored five goals.

"That is a silly question," Irvin replied. "Naturally, I'd take the man who scored the goals—even if only five. It must be put into the net before an assist is considered."

He continued:

"But give me players who can both score and set up scores and I'll give you a winning club.

The Detroit Red Wings placed five players among the top 10 point-getters — the men who both score the assist on scores. And who needs to be told that Detroit is a winning club?

Powerhouse Gordie Howe, of course, continued to lead the scoring parade. In 51 games, he has scored 39 goals and 32 assists for a total of 71 points—19 more than linemate Ted Lindsay, the closest man to him.

Maurice Richard's 22 goals and 28 assists puts the Canadiens' rocket in third place, two points behind Lindsay who has scored 21 goals and 31 assists.

Howe is Detroit's glamour boy, all right. He appears certain to break Richard's record of 50 goals in a single season. And during this very week, perhaps tomorrow night against the Rangers, you can bet he'll score a goal to put him into the NHL's charmed 200 circle. He now has scored 199 goals in regular season play since he broke into the NHL in 1946. But he's not the only bright light on the Wings.

KELLY BEST

Defenseman Red Kelly, described by coach Irvin as the greatest in the league, now has scored 16 goals. If he can score four more during Detroit's remaining 19 games he'll break the NHL goal-scoring record for defensemen. Harry Cameron set the record in a 24-game schedule in 1921-22 when he scored 19 goals for the Toronto St. Pats.

Alex Delvecchio, another Red Wing, leads the league in assists with 35. But he's also scored 10 goals which puts him into Irvin's "most desirable" class. The fifth Wing among the top 10 is Metro Prystai whose 13 goals and 26 assists put him in seventh place.

Between the nets, Detroit's Terry Sawchuk added to the club honors by compiling a goals-against average of 2.07

Reibel Loses Point Lead To Stasiuk

Vic Stasiuk, of Edmonton, took over the Western Hockey League scoring race lead from his linemate Earl Reibel over the week-end as he racked up five points in two games.

The big right-winger presently has 33 goals and 36 assists for 69 points in only 39 games while Reibel has 27 goals and 41 assists for 68 points in 52 contests.

TO RIDE AGAIN

TORONTO (BUP) — Jockey Pat Remillard said today he had recovered from an illness that forced his temporary retirement last fall and announced that he "definitely" would ride again this year.

'Red' McMillan Named As Coach of Shamrocks

Appointment Subject To Team Ratification

John "Red" McMillan has been named coach of the Shamrocks of the Intercity Lacrosse League, subject to ratification by a general meeting of the club.

The appointment of the former defenseman and one of the most popular players in the club's three-year history was made at a meeting of the club directorate

Final ratification by a full team meeting is believed only a formality. McMillan will replace Arnold Ferguson, who resigned this year following three years as the club's head mentor.

McMillan played with the Shamrocks during their first two years in the Intercity League but missed last season because of a serious injury suffered in an automobile accident.

He will be a non-playing coach as his active athletic career is at an end as a result of that injury.

Steps were aslo formulated for the strengthening of the club roster, formation of an intercity junior league team under Shamrock sponsorship and the drafting of a new club constitution.

JUNIOR ENTRY

In regard to the junior boxla entry in the ICLL, it was suggested that the Rocks meet with Doug Fletcher, president of the Greater Victoria Box Lacrosse Association and work out an arrangement whereby the present junior league in the city would not be affected by an intercity club. A two per cent levy will be made on all senior intercity games to provide a traveling fund for junior clubs.

DECLINES COMMENT

McMillan, known as "The Tiger" in his playing days, declined comment today on the appointment, explaining that he would not feel the post was official until a player meeting approved his nomination.

Oakland Oaks have traded home-run hitter Johnny Ostrowski to Toronto for outfielder Neil Sheridan, noted for his strong throwing arm.

TO CONDUCT POLL

Foul Bay Appeals to Boxla Fans

Anxious to receive another hearing on their application for an Intercity Lacrosse League franchise, the Foul Bay lacrosse club is taking its case to the fans.

To determine fan reaction to their efforts, Foul Bay officials will insert a coupon on the sports pages of both papers Wednesday in which Victoria lacrosse fans will be asked to voice their opinion on whether Foul Bay should continue its efforts to secure a league franchise.

Duncan Gains Cage Final With Arrows

Duncan Malcos whipped Gordon Head Service, 59-43, at Sooke Monday night to earn the right to meet Arrow Furniture in the lower island finals of the Senior B Men's Basketball playoffs.

Sooke girls and Eaglettes divided two exhibition preliminary games with Sooke taking the bantam game, 17-14, and Eaglettes the midget fixture by a 22-6 count.

Turpin-Olson Title Bout Seen in Making

BOSTON (AP)—There may be a new middleweight "champion" sooner than most people think if Sid Flaherty and Jack Solomons see eye-to-eye in the next few days.

If they do, Britain's Randy Turpin, the former middleweight king, and Carl Olson, top United States 160-pounder, will collide in a two-fight "title" series in San Francisco in late March and in London during the June Coronation week. They are the world's top middleweights.

Flaherty is the manager of Olson, 24-year-old slugger from San Francisco. Solomons is the British promoter who has a big say in Turpin's ring activities.

Before leaving for Los Angeles by plane Sunday, Flaherty said he planned to talk turkey with Solomons.

"The winner of a Turpin-Olson fight will be recognized as champion of the world, regardless of commissions," said Flaherty.

The manager said he pulled Bobo out of the 11-man American tournament because of the negotiations with Solomons and because "we've licked most of the guys in it—Gene Hairston, Walter Carter, Lee Sala and Norman Hayes. Ernie Durando turned down a fight with us and so did Rocky Castellani before he got beat by Pierre Langlois."

Scott and Peden Lift City Junior Cage Title

Al Snowsell led the feedmen with 19 points while Bill Garner and Lowell Hodges each netted 14 points for Dickinson & Dunn in the third and deciding game of the best-of-three series.

First United advanced into the finals in both midget and bantam boys' city playoffs in the two preliminaries.

The churchmen eked out a 27-26 victory over St. Louis College to take the bantam two-game, total-point series, 62-41, while the midgets edged the collegians, 19-16, to take that series by four points.

Both United clubs will meet Eagles in the finals.

Scott & Peden—Anderson 9, Davies 12, Snowsell 19, Jackson 14, Windle, Hampton 6, Stokes. Total—60.

Dickinson & Dunn—Woollett 9, Shields 11, Hodges 14, Cronk, Ash, Garner 14, Clark. Total—48.

St. Louis College—Kirk 3, Bayliss 8, Houston 1, McCall 7, McCoy 7, Wells, Kolb. Total 26.

First United—Skillings 6, Walker 2, Fitzgerald, Hanneson 2, McDonald, Taylor, McCullough 11, Large 2, Parker 4, Weismiller. Total—27.

St. Louis College—Scherr 4, O'Connell 4, Paul, MacDonald 6, Scrase 2, Connor, Scherr, Halper, Pagnotti. Total—32.

First United—Johnson, Jones, Grant, D. Skillings, Farquhar, Showers 8, Pecknold 3, Walsen 8, Ferguson. Total—19.

Jenkins Wins World Crown

DAVOS, Switzerland (AP)—Hayes Alan Jenkins of Akron, O., a 19-year-old sophomore at Colorado College, skated away with the men's world figure-skating championship today in a brilliant free style display which gave him a narrow margin over Jimmy Grogan of Colorado Springs, Colo.

Jenkins was trailing Grogan as the free style skating started today, but he put on such a powerful, precise display one of the nine judges felt compelled to give him a perfect score of six on his execution. The lowest score Jenkins received was 5.5.

Grogan, who won first place in the compulsory skating Monday, was several points behind Jenkins in the free skating.

In the final scoring, Jenkins received a placement figure of 13 and a total point score of 1,647.6. Grogan's scores were 16 and 1,636.8.

SURPRISE FOUND

In a big surprise, Ronald Robertson, 15-year-old high school sophomore from Long Beach, Cal., took fourth place with an excellent exhibition which raised him from seventh in the standings after the compulsory figures.

Robertson's scores were 35 for placement and 1,560.2 for total points.

Tyees Open Training March 28

Victoria Tyees are expected to open spring training at Sonoma, Calif., on or about March 28, club general manager Reg Patterson has announced.

Recently returned from a trip to Sonoma where plans for training were finalized, Patterson also disclosed that the Tyees will have plently of Western International League company on hand for exhibition games.

A schedule of pre-season games has already been worked out with the Vancouver Capilanos while Salem Senators, Tri-City Braves and Edmonton Eskimos are also reported as training in the immediate area.

In addition, Pocatello, Pioneer League champions, and the San Francisco Coast Guard are seeking exhibition games.

On the player front Carl Gunnarson has been returned to the Vancouver Capilanos, probably to act as club trainer, a similar position to which he holds with the Vancouver Canucks Hockey Club. Don Pries will get a try-out with Oakland, and former club pitcher Jim Propst has joined the U.S. Marine Corps.

Weekly Mat Program Set

The Great Yamata and Honest Cretoria will meet in the main event of wrestling promoter Ken Williamson's three-bout card Thursday at the Victoria Ballroom.

Chief Thunderbird and Jack Taylor will battle in the semi-main, while Al Watkins and Anneo Schnell tangle in the curtain raiser at 8.30.

Fight Fever Shakes Old Chicago

By JACK HAND

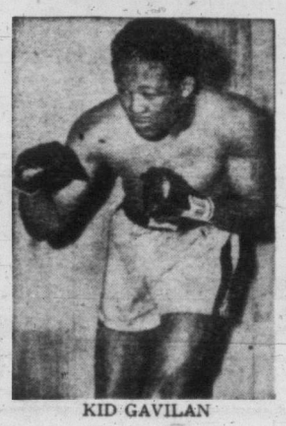
CHICAGO (AP)—Cuban Kid Gavilan, a confident 12-to-5 favorite, is looking past Wednesday's welterweight title defense against Chuck Davey to an excursion into the middleweight ranks.

In the camp of unbeaten Davey, the Michigan State grad with the record of 37 victories and two draws in 39 pro starts, things are tense. Nerves are taut. Handsome Chuck is on edge.

This metropolis boils with fight fever. Cab drivers sing Davey's praise. Professional bettors respect Gavilan's proven class. An advance sale of $210,000 is reported by the International Boxing Club's Truman Gibson, keeper of the Chicago Stadium treasury. TV salesmen offer a $25 ringside seat for free at 10 p.m. EST on the CBS network.

The gym work is finished. Gavilan belted over spar mate Al Niang with a left to the body Monday in his final workout. Davey, already under the 147-pound class limit, took a hike through Lincoln Park.

Gavilan, the champion from Cuba, is unconcerned. He prefers to talk about what comes next.



KID GAVILAN

"I wait until there is a new middleweight champ," he said.

"Then Gavilan Keed challenge the champ."

Who does he think the new champion will be?

"Randy Turpin, sure thing," he said. "Bobo Olson? No. I saw him fight. He not a hard hitter. Turpin best man. I like to fight him." This may sound pretentious for a fellow on the eve of a fight that has stirred Chicago like no scrap since the classic Tony Zale-Rocky Graziano rematch in 1947.

This probably will be Gavilan's biggest pay day—perhaps as much as $100,000. He gets 40 per cent of $80,000 of the $200,000 net house guaranteed by the TV sponsor. And he may get another $20,000 if the crowd is big. Davey also gets his biggest purse—$40,000, and 20 per cent over $200,000.

Davey is making his plans one fight at a time. Gavilan is the only one that counts now.

"I think I will win in 15," said Davey. "I wouldn't go into a fight if I didn't think I was going to win."

Attention, Lacrosse Fans

Due to the wide public interest arising from the denial of the FOUL BAY application for an Inter-City Lacrosse League franchise, the FOUL BAY CLUB has decided to poll Victoria lacrosse fans on the subject.

This poll will take the form of a coupon to be published in the Victoria Daily Times and the Daily Colonist on Wednesday, February 11.

Those who believe that Victoria can support a second Inter-City League team this season will be asked to sign the coupon and mail it to the address as given on the coupon.

The FOUL BAY CLUB has appealed the recent decision of the Inter-City League in turning down the franchise application and favorable results from this poll should warrant reopening of our case.

Thanks for your co-operation.

Vessels 'Contented' as Rival Clubs Match Bids

Probably the most contented football player in the nation today is Billy Vessels, sensational halfback with University of Oklahoma last year and winner of the Heisman Trophy.

Vessels is the apple in the eyes of both the Edmonton Eskimos of the Western Football Union and Baltimore Colts of the National Football League, and both clubs are pulling out the stoppers to get his signature on a contract.

In Edmonton, Ken Montgomery, president of the Edmonton club, said he had sent a contract to Vessels to sign.

"I haven't yet, of course, heard back from Vessels," he said. "But we are hoping that he will sign."

Montgomery would not disclose terms of the agreement, but it was believed the contract was for three years at a salary of $10,000 a year, plus a promised job in the oil industry during the off-season.

In Baltimore, Don Kellett, president of the newly-organized Colts, said he planned to make another attempt today to sign Vessels—although his No. 1 draft choice reportedly is ready to accept an offer from Edmonton.

Kellett said Vessels, 185-pound All-America halfback, had promised not to sign with Edmonton until he has one more talk with the Colts.

MUST MATCH OFFER

According to Kellett, Vessels said he would play for Baltimore if it matched Edmonton's offer of a three-year contract at $10,000 a year plus an off-season job. Vessels said the Canadian club also offered to take care of his income tax, but he indicated the Colts would not have to go that far, Kellett added.

Kellett said he "made some adjustments" in the offer he previously made and that Vessels "seemed more inclined" toward Baltimore. The Baltimore president declined to reveal any figures but said he would be willing to offer a contract "for a couple of years."

LI'L ARTHUR INSISTS ON CHANCE AT TITLE

TORONTO (BUP) — Slick Li'l Arthur King insisted today on a title match with lightweight champion Jimmy Carter of New York after dancing to a unanimous 10-round decision over Allan McFater Monday night.

King, the British Empire lightweight champion and No. 5 in line for a crack at Carter, hardly worked up a sweat as he jabbed the 21-year-old McFater into submission before 8,500 fans, the largest crowd of the boxing season at Maple Leaf Gardens.

Promoter Frank Tunney said chances for a King-Carter match were "much better" following the Philadelphia negro's lopsided victory. He said he wanted the match staged here.

"It would be a natural draw. Toronto is King's home town and it would be a sellout," Tunney predicted.

McMorran's Nip Saanich Cagers

McMorran's edged Saanichton juvenile boys, 27-25, in the feature contest of a two-game Saanich and suburban basketball card at the Lake Hill gym Monday night.

Leafs, Eilers in Vancouver Final

VANCOUVER (BUP) — The Vancouver Clover Leafs moved into the finals of the inter-city senior A men's basketball finals against the Vancouver Eilers Monday night by defeating UBC Jayvee's, 69-56.

The Jayvee's put up a lot tougher battle than expected and the Leafs were putting forth their best effort before they actually sewed the game up.

Craig paced the Leafs with 18 points, with the Mulhern brothers runners-up in the scoring department. Madill was tops for UBC with 15 points.

The best-of-seven final series opens Thursday.

HUTTON NAMED ENGLAND'S TOP SPORTSMAN

LONDON (AP)—Cricketer Len Hutton has been elected "sportsman of the year" for 1952 in a national ballot conducted by the magazine Sporting Record.

Middleweight fighter Randy Turpin was second and Col. Harry Llewellyn, captain of the British horse jumping team, which won first place in the Olympics, was third.

FAMECHON BADLY WHIPPED

Bassett Captures 'Interim' Title

PARIS (BUP)—Percy Bassett of Philadelphia won the world's "interim" featherweight championship Monday night when France's Ray Famechon was saved by the bell ending the third round but couldn't answer it for the fourth.

Only one second prevented Bassett from earning a clean knockout over the Frenchman in the fight for the right to be considered champion while Sandy Saddler is in the army. Saddler witnessed the fight, Paris' first world championship fight in 17 years.

As the third round neared its end, Bassett forced Famechon against the ropes and unleashed a flurry of jabs to the face.

Famechon slumped to the canvas and referee Abe Sihemann began tolling the count as the crowd roared in bedlam. But when Sihemann reached "nine" the bell rang to end the round.

Throughout the intermission Famechon's handlers worked frantically in a vain attempt to rouse their man. When the bell rang to start the fourth round, Famechon still was semi-conscious.

Harper Wins Golf Playoff

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (BUP)—Veteran Chandler Harper, who said he would leave the competitive golf trail after this week, was squarely on the spot as the man to beat today in the $10,000 Texas Open at Brackenbridge Park course here Thursday.

The 39-year-old Virginian battled high winds and blinding dust Monday to beat young Ted Kroll by three strokes in an 18-hole playoff match for the El Paso Open championship.

Harper picked up $2,000 first money, to go with $1,400 second money in the Tucson Open, and ran his total earnings to $3,400 in his only two appearances on the winter circuit.

Harper, flaunted the handicap of a splintered driver to post a 33-37—70 on the par 36-35—71 El Paso Country Club layout while Kroll's game fell apart on the back side for a 33-40—73 and second money of $1,400.

Fish Gear Theft Case Opens Here

Speedy trial of George Gettle, charged with stealing fishing tackle over the value of $25, property of Bondan Zuck, 1528 Camosun Street, opened in County Court Monday before Judge J. B. Clearihue.

Mr. Zuck told the court the fishing tackle was taken from his car which was parked on Inverness Street, near Quadra, on the night of Sept. 19, last year. The gear stolen included an expensive spinning reel, rod and line, he said.

BELIEVE IN YOURSELF

Loosen Up the Muscles, Drain the Mind—Relax

This is a chapter of the best-selling book, "The Power of Positive Thinking," by Dr. N. V. Peale. Succeeding chapters will be published in The Times daily.

By NORMAN VINCENT PEALE, DD

I once filmed a program for television with my friend, Captain Eddie Rickenbacker. We had been assured that the work could be done quickly, leaving him free to go on to the many other matters on his daily agenda.

However, the filming was delayed long beyond the time anticipated. I noted, however, that the captain showed no signs of agitation. He did not become nervous or anxious. He did not pace up and down, putting in frantic calls to his office. Instead, he accepted the situation gracefully. There were a couple of old rocking chairs at the studio, apparently intended for use in a set other than ours. He sat in one rocker in a very relaxed manner.

Peale

I have always been a great admirer of Eddie Rickenbacker and I commented on his lack of tension. "I know how busy you are," I said, "and I marvel at the way you sit quiet, composed, and peaceful like."

He laughingly replied, "Oh, I just practice what you preach. Come on, easy does it. Sit down here beside me."

I pulled up the other rocking chair and did a little relaxing on my own. Then I said, "Eddie, I know you have some technique to attain this impressive serenity. Tell me about it, please."

He is a modest man, but because of my persistence he gave me a formula which he says he uses frequently. I now use it myself and it is very effective. It may be described as follows:

BE A JELLYFISH

First, collapse physically. Practice this several times a day. Let go every muscle in the body. Conceive of yourself as a jellyfish, getting your body into complete looseness. Form a mental picture of a huge burlap bag of potatoes. Then mentally cut the bag, allowing the potatoes to roll out. Think of yourself as the bag. What is more relaxed than an empty burlap bag?

The second element in the formula is to "drain the mind." Several times each day, drain the mind of all irritation, all resentment, disappointment, frustration and annoyance. Unless you drain the mind frequently and regularly, these unhappy thoughts will accumulate until a major blasting out process will be necessary. Keep the mind drained of all factors which would impede the flow of relaxed power.

Third, think spiritually. To think spiritually means to turn the mind at regular intervals to God. At least three times a day "lift up your eyes unto the hills." This keeps you in tune with God's harmony. It refills you with peace. This three-point program greatly impressed me, and I have been practicing it for some months. It is an excellent method for relaxing and living on the basis of easy does it.

When we were doing some construction work at my farm in Pawling, New York, I watched a workman swinging a shovel. He was shoveling a pile of sand. It was a beautiful sight. Stripped to the waist, his lean and muscular body worked with precision and correlation. The shovel rose and fell in perfect ryhthm. He would push the shovel into the pile, lean his body against it and drive it deep into the sand. Then, in a clear, free swing it came up and the sand was deposited without a break in the motion. Again the shovel went back into the sand, again his body leaned against, again the shovel lifted easily in a perfect arc. One almost had a feeling that he could sing in rhythm to the motion of this workman. Indeed, the man did sing as he worked.

JOYOUS POWER

I was not surprised when the foreman told me that he considered the man one of his best workmen. The foreman also spoke of him as good-humored, happy, and a pleasant person with whom to work. Here was a relaxed man who lived with joyous power, master of the art of easy does it.

Relaxation results from recreation, and the process of recreation should be continuous. The human being is meant to be attached to a continual flow of force that proceeds from God through the individual and back to God for renewal. When one lives in tune with this constantly recreative process one learns the indispensable ability to relax and work on the basis of easy does it.

How to master this skill? Here are 10 rules for taking the hard work out of your job. Try these proven methods for working hard easily. They will help you to relax and have easy power.

1. Don't get the idea that you are Atlas carrying the world on your shoulders. Don't strain so hard. Don't take yourself so seriously.

2. Determine to like your work. Then it will become a pleasure, not drudgery. Perhaps you do not need to change your job. Change yourself and your work will seem different.

3. Plan your work—work your plan. Lack of system produces that "I'm swamped" feeling.

TIME SPREAD OUT

4. Don't try to do everything at once. That is why time is spread out. Heed that wise advice from the Bible, "This one thing I do."

5. Get a correct mental attitude, remembering that ease or difficulty in your work depends upon how you think about it. Think it's hard and you make it hard. Think it's easy and it tends to become easy.

6. Become efficient in your work. "Knowledge is power" (over your job). It is always easier to do a thing right.

7. Practice being relaxed. Easy always does it. Don't press or tug. Take it in your stride.

8. Discipline yourself not to put off until tomorrow what you can do today. Accumulation of undone jobs makes your work harder. Keep your work up to schedule.

9. Pray about your work. You will get relaxed efficiency by so doing.

10. Take on the "unseen partner." It is surprising the load He will take off you. God is as much at home in offices, factories, stores and kitchens as in churches. He knows more about your job than you do. His help will make your work easy.

FIRST RULING BY SPEAKER HITS PREMIER

Speaker Thomas Irwin made his first important ruling in the Legislature Monday and it was against a government action.

He ruled that all questions placed on the order paper must be answered in writing, not orally.

On Friday, Premier W. A. C. Bennett had answered orally Mrs. Nancy Hodges' order paper questions.

Speaker Irwin Monday admitted he was remiss in his duty in allowing the oral reply, and promised to watch this aspect more carefully.

B.C. Budget May Be Read Next Tuesday

Premier Bennett told the House Monday he hoped this would be possible without the necessity of night sittings to complete the Throne Speech debate.

Replied Opposition Leader Harold Winch: "I don't know if it will be possible to present the budget Tuesday. But we won't drag out the debate and there will be no filibusters."

He added that all CCF members intended to speak in the debate, and Liberal House leader E. T. Kenney echoed the statement.

Neither leaders seemingly wanted to speed up progress to suit the premier's apparent wish to bring the budget down as soon as possible.

Saanich Would Force License on Builders

Saanich Council decided Monday to put teeth in its Trades' License By-law to stop contractors from operating in the municipality without a license.

Under the present by-law there is no minimum penalty. Offenders in the past have been fined no more than $10 in Saanich police court.

The council's action followed a complaint from Fire Chief Joseph Law that several contractors are operating in the municipality without trade licenses.

"Many of these contractors are deliberately defying the by-law," said the fire chief. "They are not afraid of breaking the by-law because the penalties in the past have been too small."

Fair Employment Practices Act For B.C. Asked by CCF Member

Enactment of a fair employment practices act was advocated in the Legislature Monday by Jim Bury, CCF member for Vancouver Centre, in Throne Speech debate.

The youthful opposition member of the House, who is secretary of Vancouver's CCL labor council, devoted his whole speech to labor matters but stressed particularly what he called "the real necessity of legislation giving equal right to everyone to earn a living."

He said such legislation should provide for a board to investigate all complaints of discrimination, and to promote fair employment practices.

Sometimes, he said, employers carry on their discrimination in a subtle way. He referred to a recent survey made of job application forms used by various employers.

He said 82 per cent of the forms under scrutiny asked the job seeker's place of birth. He said 71 per cent wanted to know the applicant's religion; 51 per cent, his nationality, and 35 per cent his club affiliations.

Less than 11 per cent, he said, asked about his ability and experience.

ACTION NEEDED

Mr. Bury said it was up to the government to remove from job application forms questions pertaining to religion, place of birth and nationality.

The Vancouver member said he was bitterly disappointed because the Throne Speech made no mention of improved labor legislation. He said the policy speech was good for big business, though, because it left employers alone to continue to exploit the natural resources.

"There is to be no attempt to shift the burden to those most able to pay," he declared.

At another point he called the Throne Speech "a Conservative speech, designed for Social Credit consumption."

He complained that there were no amendments planned for the ICA Act. He noted labor had been asking for revisions in this since 1949, and had been given "the runaround."

RIGHTS DENIED

He said one section of the present act denied workers the right to belong to the union of their choice. He said another wrongfully gave the Labor Relations Board the right to decide whether a man was in good union standing. He said this was something only the union could decide.

Dealing with the Workmen's Compensation Act, he chided the government for not going ahead with amendments suggested last year by Chief Justice Gordon McG. Sloan, who investigated it as a one-man commission of inquiry. Mr. Bury said it was most important that agricultural workers and domestic workers be brought under the act so as to receive benefits from it.

85c MINIMUM

Speaking on the Minimum Wage Act, he advocated establishment of an 85-cent hourly rate as the lowest possible pay for workers in all fields of endeavor. This rate, he noted, now was the minimum for construction workers.

Workers in manufacturing, he observed, were only protected by a minimum hourly wage of 40 cents, while the minimum in sawmills was 50 cents, and in the logging industry, 60 cents.

He complained that the Board of Industrial Relations which administers the Minimum Wage Act had never had a union man on it, although the act itself called for a representative of labor.

Coming to the matter of the Annual Holidays With Pay Act, Mr. Bury complained that B.C. was behind in this regard, too.

He brought chuckles from the House when he declared: "I don't expect this government to bring our act up to the standard of Saskatchewan (where there is a CCF administration). But at least it could try and bring it up to the standard in Alberta (Canada's only other Social Credit governed province)."

YOUR NERVES

are not made of STEEL

. . . and sometimes you wonder how much your body can stand

MOTHER! Look at the strain and noise you put up with on an average day. From early 'till late, your children are on the go—playing, shouting, sometimes fighting and crying. Nothing wrong with that, but it does get on your nerves because YOUR NERVES ARE NOT MADE OF STEEL!

The telephone jars you, the door-bell rings; meals to get and dishes to wash; laundry to do and a house to clean. You're a busy woman. No wonder you get tense, tired, run-down and irritable. You're human! YOUR NERVES ARE NOT MADE OF STEEL!

DAD! Look at the turmoil and confusion facing YOU on an average day. People to see, or rush work to do. The office is noisy or a machine breaks down. And personal things—the kitchen tap's leaking; the coal bin's low; the youngster needs glasses and the car needs repairs.

And money! There's more going out than there is coming in. No wonder your head feels like a rivetting machine and the nervous strain is almost too much. You come home with your stomach in knots and your appetite gone. You're human! YOUR NERVES ARE NOT MADE OF STEEL!

When NERVES Get You Down, Don't Just Long for Relief, HERE'S WHAT TO DO

You can get real benefit through the 6-week Plan with Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. This is not a medicinal fad; you are not experimenting. Thousands of Canadian men and women before you, have used this 6-Week Plan to win the new vim and fresh outlook on life which they needed so badly. Why not you?

What This Plan Can Mean to You

It can mean new Force, new Vigor . . . the quiet, steady nerves that go with good health. It may mean the new feeling of energy you have always needed to excel at your work, and to get full enjoyment and companionship from your family life. Yes, that's what Dr. Chase's Nerve Food can do for you!

Here's What Can Happen to YOU in ONLY 6 WEEKS

Follow the directions faithfully. It may not be long before you see and feel the big difference that Dr. Chase's Nerve Food can make in your life. You may start to look better, feel better in just a few days. Your appetite starts to pick up, your body feels more rested, your nerves more relaxed and at ease.

Don't Put It Off

Don't say: "I must do that someday." Start right now, because you can't lose. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food contains all the body-building elements found in Vitamin B_1, Iron and other health-giving Minerals. They work together to build you up and strengthen your Nerves,—improve your general, all-round health. Help you to get your natural rest and forget that you were ever tired, run-down and with "nerves" keeping you on edge and making you feel miserable.

RESULTS IN JUST 6 WEEKS OR IT COSTS YOU NOTHING

The 6-Week Plan of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food requires 6 small boxes ($4.74) or 2 large boxes ($3.96) Take as directed. At the end of 6 weeks, you must be able to say to yourself: "I feel like a new person" . . . or we'll refund every penny you paid for the entire Plan. If you are not delighted with the way you feel, just send us the 6 direction sheets from the small boxes or the two top carton flaps from the large boxes, and back comes your money to you. YOU OWE IT TO YOURSELF TO START THE DR. CHASE'S NERVE FOOD 6-WEEK PLAN. So phone your druggist right now—and get started today.

BETWEEN TIMES

By MONTE ROBERTS

I fearlessly predict that the Social Credit government is going to spring an election soon.

Why else would they be giving up such wonderful weather?

There is a very informative booklet in circulation, entitled "What Your Social Credit Government is doing for British Columbia."

On the inside two pages are outlined the basic precepts and ideals of the Social Credit Party, which are also very hon. indeed.

On the very inside of the folder, are two columns of information, decorated with the slogan "prosperity, security, with individual freedom."

Under the heading "prosperity" are listed six things which the government is doing, and 20 which it hopes or intends to do.

And I again assure you, the intentions are very hon. indeed.

I commend this folder to the attention of all citizens who wonder what on earth the Social Credit government is doing.

Personally, I do not mind much what the Social Credit government does, as long as it does not bring in Social Credit.

Ike seems to have stirred up a bit of opposition to his Formosa Policy.

However, you must admit that he appears to have a policy.

Not many previous administrations can make that statement.

I see that HMCS Crusader will be heading for home in the fairly near future.

Hmmmm. Better start practicing:

"Winnipeg is a wonderful city. Winnipeg is inhabited by wonderful people. Winnipeg has wonderful weather. Wonderful, wonderful, Winnipeg."

In case you think I have lost my marbles, serving in Crusader are 12 Winnipeggers who have taken violent objection to slighting remarks about their home town.

Headed by AB R. Olson, they have promised to have a "heart to heart talk" with me on their return.

As I was saying: "Winnipeg, wonderful, wonderful Winnipeg . . ."

Walter Reuther has told the Ontario Federation of Labor that "employers eat by the year and get paid by the year, and that's the way we want it."

Let's see, now. I get paid by the week.

An article in the paper says "present-day schoolchildren ride to school on a vicious circle . . ."

A vicious circle? Is that a unicycle with bent spokes?

No Move To Cut Session

Bennett Answers House Critics

Premier W. A. C. Bennett today denied his government is trying to force a short session, as charged by his political opponents.

"We're not trying to stifle the members," said the premier. "All we are doing is trying to get our legislation before the House as soon as possible so the members and the people will know the policies of their first Social Credit government."

Opposition parties, he recalled, have been advocating such action for years.

CORRECT SITUATION

"There were always complaints because important legislation was rushed through late in the session," the premier said. "We are simply trying to correct that situation."

The government hopes to present the 1953-54 budget next Tuesday, he said, but this will depend on whether the Throne Speech debate is completed.

Provision has been made for night sittings later this week, he explained, but they may not be necessary.

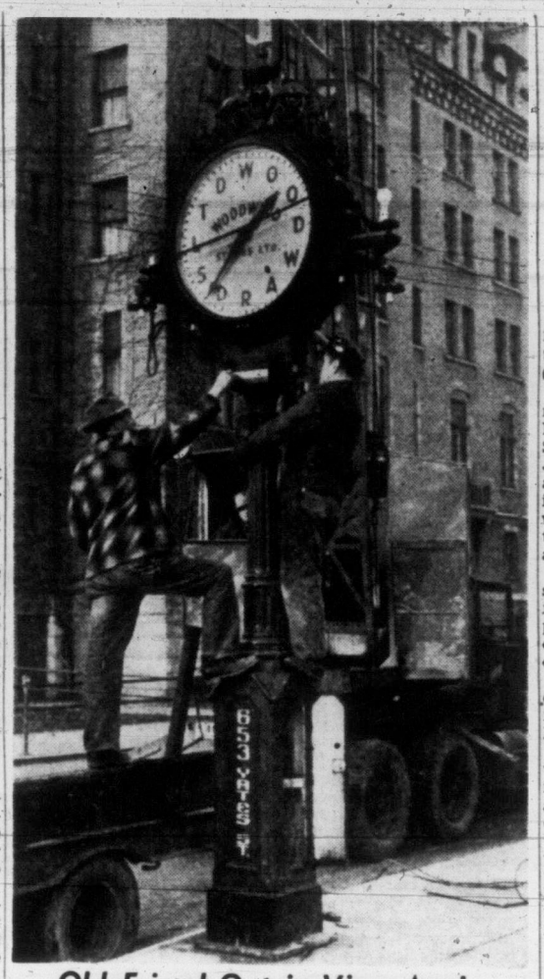
Premier Bennett said all Social Credit private members will speak in the budget debate. He explained they chose to wait to speak until presentation of the budget "so they could discuss it more intelligently."

CCF Speaker May Attack Milk Policy

When Robert Strachan (CCF, Cowichan-Newcastle) takes the floor of the Legislature Thursday for his maiden speech in the House he is expected to contest the government's proposal to remove milk price controls above the producer level.

Mr. Strachan has received 30 telegrams from dairymen in his constituency protesting the Social Credit government's proposed milk policy. The telegrams were received following a protest meeting of Vancouver Island dairy men in Duncan last week. It was decided there that those affected by the decision should wire their views to their respective members.

In addition to the telegrams received by Mr. Strachan from dairy farmers in his constituency, five were sent to Esquimalt member Frank Mitchell from Cobble Hill dairy men; nine were sent Frank Snowsell, member for Saanich, and six protests were sent to Dr. Larry Giovando, MLA for Nanaimo.



Old Friend Out in View Again

Out of storage and ready to keep Victorians on time for their dates once again is this big timepiece which stood outside Wenger's Jewelry Store on Yates, below Douglas, for more than a quarter of a century. Workmen are shown as the clock is installed by Woodward's Stores (Victoria) at the northwest corner of Humboldt and Douglas Streets. The crank-wound, eight-day precision piece was made for Wenger's by Mayer Bros. shop of Seattle and installed in 1927. It was sold to F. W. Francis Ltd. with Wenger's store in 1945. When the building was demolished to make way for construction of the new Metropolitan store, the clock was offered to the city at a fraction of its $2,000 value last September. Up for sale, with no takers, it went into storage, from where Woodward's retrieved it. "We heard Victoria was going to lose the clock and as it is an old friend of the city's we wanted to keep it," said Courtney Haddock, manager of Woodward's here. (Victoria Times photo.)

Bright BCHIS Picture Painted by Minister

More Cash and Registrants Now Than at Any Time in Three Years

British Columbia hospital insurance scheme has more cash in hand and more registration than at any other time in its three-year history.

Cash balance (which includes the 1952-53 $4,686,960 subsidy) at January 31, 1953—$8,323,374. (Previous subsidies total $11,045,000.)

At January 31, 1951—345,792.

Mr. Martin said premium receipts in the ten months between April 1, 1952, and January 31, 1953, totalled $13,157,365, despite the fact the new government lowered premiums retroative to July 1, 1952, at a reported cost of $750,000 in revenue.

STEADY GAINS

For the similar period the year before, Mr. Martin said, total premium receipts were $13,040,801, and the year before that $9,706,387.

In reply to questions by Mrs. Hodges, the minister said the BCHIS reorganization, ordered by the former government, has been completed and resulted in the transfer or discharge of 10 to 12 employees. Annual saving from this was estimated at $20,000 to $25,000.

Mr. Martin said 1,736 delinquents were reinstated when they took advantage of the new government's action last September when arrears were suspended if they paid one year's back premiums.

Total arrears collected, he said, was $58,428.

Land-Owner Fights Booming in Harbor

Deputy Minister's Decision Held Violation of Public's Rights

A legal battle to stop the B.C. Forest Products Ltd. from storing logs in Selkirk waters, an area situated between Victoria Harbor and the Gorge, opened in Supreme Court today.

W. R. McIntyre, counsel represetning the Redwood Park Ltd., owner of property along Selkirk waters, petitioned Mr. Justice J. O. Wilson to set aside a decision of the Deputy Minister of Lands, George Melrose, who allowed the lumber firm to establish a log boom in the area last June.

The deputy minister's decision granted the company a five-year lease of the waters, providing it allowed a sufficient channel for the movement of small boats.

Mr. McIntyre claimed that the deputy minister's decision interfered and clashed with the public rights to navigable waters.

His Lordship made the observation that the deputy minister in his decision had allowed for a small channel for the passage of small boats.

"What right has the minister to limit the size of the boats to use Selkirk waters," replied Mr. McIntyre. "The law states navigable waters shall be free from obstruction."

NO ACCESS

Mr. McIntyre further argued that deputy minister's decision interfered with the rights of people who own land beside navigable waters. They had full rights to use of water in front of their property, he said.

"This is a very old right," said counsel. "My client can't even gain access to his property at low tide from Selkirk Waters.

Alan Baker, counsel for the lumber company, argued the court had no jurisdiction to deal with the case.

"The case has been taken to the wrong court," he said. "It is not a matter for this court."

He asked that the petition be dismissed.

AWARDED WINGS as radio officer at recent graduation ceremony at RCAF Station, Clinton, Ont., was Pilot Officer C. E. Cooper, son of H. E. Cooper, 2325 Lee Avenue, Victoria. Born in Nelson, he received early education there and enlisted as airman in 1948. He obtained his junior matriculation by correspondence in order to qualify for aircrew. He commenced aircrew training in Feb., 1952.

NAVAL RATING HELD PENDING RCMP REPORT

An RCMP investigation of suspected thefts of provisions from HMCS Naden is still in progress and the Navy still has no full report, a spokesman said today.

A naval rating is being held, awaiting formal charges, arising out of alleged sale of naval provisions.

Discrepancies Seen In City Assessment

$90,000 Sale Price for Apartment Assessed for $21,000 Held Example

An apartment block assessed at $21,000, which was sold for $90,000, was given by City Assessor A. G. Joyce Monday as an example of "discrepancies in the tax roll."

Speaking at the city's court of revision on assessments, Mr. Joyce said the example was just one of many which pointed up the need for the assessment equalization program now under way.

Before the hearing concluded, Mayor Claude Harrison, chairman, endorsed the program and said the tax rate, not present assessments, is "all wrong."

About 20 of 64 persons submitting written appeals, appeared before the court. Bulk of assessments stood although six were revised downward on recommendation of Mr. Joyce.

"Houses built in the depression years were assessed at cost and we all know what the costs were—$1,800, $2,000," said Mr. Joyce. "In the past few years those who owned a new home complained bitterly. They were subsidizing the owners of older homes and converted dwellings."

He noted that whereas last year a number of new home owners appealed assessments, this year's appeals were confined mostly to the owners of older-type homes.

TAKING EFFECT

The program of equalization which is expected to be completed by the end of this year, has begun to take effect with regard to older homes, Mr. Joyce said.

The program will bring relief to the city's highest taxed residential area—Rockland Avenue—where the assessor feels assessments are "at least 20 per cent too high."

He implied because the area was losing its original classification as an exclusive residential district because of the number of rooming houses assessments be reduced.

Several persons appealing assessments claimed they were quoted certain tax figures by real estate salesmen only to discover that the rate mentioned was on a partially completed house.

Mr. Joyce said today there was no case of any member of the real estate board of Victoria selling property under false pretences.

"If it has happened it has been through previous owners giving false information," he said.

Jail Terms For Burglary, Car Looting

Two young men were given jail terms by Magistrate H. C. Hall when they appeared in Esquimalt police court Monday afternoon.

William Robert Pick, 17, transferred from juvenile court to open court, was given a one-year term at Oakalla for breaking and entering the home of Mrs. Joan White, 679 Grenville, and committing theft on Jan. 27. He had pleaded guilty.

Alfred Robert Dahlgren, 20, of HMCS Naden, was sentenced to three months in prison for theft of clothing and other articles from four cars of fellow sailors Feb. 1.

PLEADED GUILTY

Carl Asquini, 20, of Naden, received a six-month suspended sentence for unlawfully retaining in his possession two articles stolen by Dahlgren.

Both pleaded guilty in court Feb. 2.

Gerald Stanley Kinkoski and Everett Glaspoole, HMCS Naden, pleaded guilty to a charge of taking a car without the consent of the owner, John Contiout, navy. They were remanded one week for sentence.

David Richards, 1154 Kings, was fined $35 when he pleaded guilty to a charge of careless driving. Charge arose from a telephone pole crash on Admirals Road.

Mainland Youths Remanded on Possession Count

Preliminary hearing of four Mainland youths on a charge of unlawfully retaining stolen groceries was remanded in city police court today to Wednesday for completion.

Charged are Henry W. Gable, William R. Caverley and Albert S. Glover, all of Vancouver, and William F. Morrison, New Westminster.

They are alleged to have been in possession of groceries under the value of $25 stolen from the store of Mrs. Gladys Wyatt, 648 Gorge Road, on January 27.

Argument will be heard Wednesday from James J. Proudfoot, defense, and Prosecutor Alan E. Bigelow.

Duncan Fights Huge Increase In Assessment

The city of Duncan will fight a 3,000 per cent increase in the assessment by its neighbor, North Cowichan municipality, of city water lines that run through the municipality from the source of supply.

The new assessment is $48,540, an increase from $1,615. Based on the 1952 tax rate, the levy in 1953 will be $1,546.81, as compared to $68.64 last year.

The city's appeal against the increase was rejected by the municipal court of revision Monday.

At a city council meeting Monday night it was decided to carry the city's fight against the assessment either to County or Supreme Court.

Mayor J. C. Wragg did not say the city would take retaliatory measures against the municipality, but warned of a "healthy increase" in water rates, including those to some 300 consumers who live on municipal land but get their water from Duncan mains.

Driver Chooses Jail Rather Than Pay Fine

Joseph R. Planes, Sooke P.O., chose 30 days in jail rather than pay a $250 fine and $6.50 costs imposed against him in Sooke court Monday on a charge of driving a car while his ability was impaired by alcohol, RCMP Highway Patrol reported.

He was tried before W. J. Conder, JP, Sooke.

Census Reveals Victoria Has Most '70 and Overs'

Figures taken by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics from the 1951 census, released recently, reveal that a statement often levelled at Greater Victoria is true.

It is a haven for old folks. Its "70 years and over" group is almost 10 per cent of the total population, highest of any of the 16 metropolitan areas tabulated.

Of the total population of 104,303, there are 10,089 in the 70-plus group. London, Ont., Vancouver, and Saint John are next closest with six per cent of their population in the oldster class, while the others are five per cent and less.

Oddly enough, the converse is not true, since Toronto has the lowest proportion of population in the 0-4 years age group or 9.31 per cent. Victoria is second lowest, though, with 9.36 per cent.

Victoria is high on the list of cities whose population is predominantly British, being beaten out only by St. John's, Nfld., whose 67,749 residents are 97 per cent of British Isles origin.

In Victoria, 82,447 claim British origin. Others are: French, 2,293; German, 1,901; Italian, 464; Jewish, 102; Netherlands, 1,073; Polish, 759; Russian, 475; Scandinavian, 2,801; Ukranian, 688; other European, 1,508; Asiatics, 2,689.

This tendency is carried out in religions, where the Church of England has the largest group of 44,793 followers. Others are United Church, 25,457; Presbyterian, 10,369; Roman Catholic, 9,523; Baptist, 3,540; Lutheran, 1,721; Greek Orthodox, 323; Ukrainian, 176; Jewish, 137; Mennonite, 25; others, 8,329.

Plans Made for Disaster Exercise Here

A.—Anything that is carried on the person for constant use, as a manual, guide book, etc. Literally, "go with me."

Anyone wishing a question answered is invited to send the problem along to The Times, addressed to and answers will be published daily. All questions should deal with matters of fact and be of general interest.

SHOPPING GUIDE

Scour Puss, Jonny Mop Ride Atop Magic Leaf

By PENNY SAVER

Excuse me if I sound confused! I saw so many handy kitchen gadgets today that I can hardly sort out my impressions. If I had a $100 bill I would grab it and run right back and buy them!

Listen to these ideas to straighten up your kitchen. For instance, the disappearing pot holder. The rack fits under your sink and has hangers for 10 pots. To select one, simply pull the rack towards you. Price is $3.70.

Nice to have a disappearing towel dryer along side of it. The three "arms" slide out and hold three towels. $4.30 and it's yours.

On the other side, you can have an automatic pop-up garbage container fitted on your sink cabinet door. No more bothersome foot peddle as the lid pops up automatically.

It'll take steady nerves to get accustomed to opening this door and having something white leap out at you, but once this minor point is mastered, you will be home free for $10.50.

* * *

Relieve the pressure in your crowded cupboards with a "Serve-a-dish." This steel rack fits on the front side wall of your cupboard. You stack your dishes on what look like steel embroidery hoops in three graduated sizes. They swing out separately. A wonderful convenience at $5.25! It can be used neatly with a hanging cup shelf, which slides into view when needed and holds 12 cups.

With the numerous shiny steel utility, package, spice and corner shelves (to name only a few) the old cluttered style kitchen cupboards need be nothing but a horrid memory.

* * *

About that Jonny Mop! It's a plastic handle arrangement, designed to hold a foaming "flush-away" pad that cleans the toilet bowl. This pad is detergent, deodorant, and also a sanitizing agent, which simply flushes away. Price of the Jonny Mop is $1.95 and boxes of 10 refills, 39 cents.

Seems to me we've told you about this before . . . but anyway (it's worth telling again).

* * *

And the scour puss? These are scouring pads in cheery colors of vivid green, red and gold. It is claimed to be the modern dish cloth and sells for only 15 cents.

* * *

Would you like to buy a bun warmer, refrigerator pan, baking dish, fish freezer and lunch kit, all for $2.49? You'll find all these services combined in the covered "Ready Mix" pan.

This multi-purpose gift is also ideal for carrying cakes as it seals in moisture and prevents drying.

* * *

Most sensational invention this year is "Magic Leaf" (we're also re-doing this one again)—the poor man's magic carpet! Anybody can have one for $1.39. Just drop the leaf into dishwater and while you wash the dishes, it cleans your silverware. Can even be used for solid silver, fine gold or silver jewelry!

WHY GROW OLD?

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Woman With Home and Job Needs Good Organization

"Women at work" is a sign which could be posted almost any place and be true. Women are working in home, in offices, hospitals, schools, shops and factories. It is amazing how much they do, how efficiently they do it and how attractive they look.

It is too bad that the career woman and the one in the home lack understanding of one another's problems. This is natural because one's own problems always seem more crucial than those of others. Being a housewife or a career woman each has its advantages and disadvantages, and its own particular problems.

It takes a great deal of organization to swing a career and still take care of the personal needs of health and beauty, and if you have a job, and a home and family, and make a success of both, you should be able to pull rabbits out of a hat. Yet thousands of women do just this.

The woman who has a home and a job to care for is more likely to cut out leaks in energy, to act rather than procrastinate in overcoming irritating and tiring circumstances, because she simply cannot afford to do otherwise. She has only so much energy and it must be divided in many different ways. Of necessity, because of sheer self-survival, she develops cutoffs to many of the small, hectic or disappointing experiences in daily living.

This is not always true of the woman in the home. She is more apt to drag along with situations which could be changed. She can mull over her problems while she dusts the furniture. If she had a job, too, she would have to act to stop such a waste of energy.

I think women would be much more understanding of one another, and much more sympathetic, if they understood one another's problems. Anyway, it is always a fine idea to recognize your blessings and face your problems so that you can thank the stars for the first and adjust to the latter.

Jewels Awarded

President of the Rebekah Assembly of British Columbia, Mrs. Mona Brealey paid an official visit to Carne Lodge recently, when the Victoria Rebekah Past Noble Grands Club honored two lodge members.

Mrs. Winifred Robilliard of Carne No. 45 and Miss Dorothy H. Dobson of Colfax No. 1, were each awarded a Veteran's Jewel for faithful service in lodge work.

Mrs. Brealey was assisted in the ceremony by Mrs. M. Sommerville, PP of Vancouver and Mrs. J. Wilby, the First Noble Grand of Carne No. 45.

For Fund — At meeting of Soroptimist Club of Greater Victoria, $36 was donated to the Western Canadian Regional Fellowship Fund, which is awarded to an outstanding woman for post-graduate work in her chosen profession. Mrs. Ann Robertson presided and Mrs. J. U. Kimmitt reported $15,300 collected to date for the TB seal fund.

AS WE LIVE

Minister, Publicly Pious, Is Neglectful of Wife

By ELIZABETH B. HURLOCK PhD

When a woman realizes that her husband is a hypocrite, how should she treat him? That is the problem facing the woman who wrote:

Hurlock

(Q)—"I am married to a minister who is now pastoring a very nice church. He makes a good salary but does not want the responsibility of a family. He comes and goes like a single man. I have worked ever since my marriage and have completely supported myself. Last month I went to court and had him give me $13 a week. Now he is trying to get a divorce, but can't. He goes off for a week at a time, stays all night and never tells me where he goes. He was out all night on Christmas Eve and when he came home, he had many presents but he did not say who gave them to him. The church and the church clubs gave us money. When I asked him about these things, he tells me to get out, as he does not want a wife. What shall I do?"

(A)—Go back to the court that granted you the money your husband now pays you and consult the judge about the next step you should take. He may suggest a legal separation in the hope that this will make your husband realize that he has assumed responsibilities he cannot throw off so easily.

Let your husband know that you have lost respect for him because of his hypocritical ways. A man who had dedicated his life to the service of God and who preaches the Gospel to his congregation week after week is behaving very badly at home. He is certainly not living up to the moral standards he teaches.

If nothing you can say or do has any effect on your husband, you have no alternative but to leave him. This may readily cost him his job. The members of his congregation will quickly lose respect for him when they know that he is spending his time away from home, doubtless with another woman. If he were away on church business or for some other legitimate cause, he would not keep it a secret.

Don't allow your life to be ruined by a hypocrite and don't sacrifice yourself so he can continue to lead a double life. It is better for the members of his congregation to know what sort of man he is. He is not the sort most people want their minister to be.

Dr. Hurlock will help you with family problems. Write her in care of this newspaper.

SHORTCAKE HEARTS A LA KING

Don't let Valentine's Day pass without some recognition. If there is no "sweet tooth" in your family, try these heart-shaped shortcakes. They made a delicious main dish, served with piping hot chicken a la king accompanied by steaming button mushrooms topped with paprika. Decorate with fresh green parsley centring a gay red cutout. And, of course, cucumber slices.

One and a half cups four-way vitamin enriched flour, 2¼ teaspoons baking powder, 2 tablespoons sugar, few grains salt, ¼ cup shortening, ⅓ to ½ cup milk, melted butter.

Sift together flour, baking powder, sugar and salt. Cut in shortening with pastry blender. Add enough milk to make a soft dough. Roll out on lightly-floured board to half-inch thickness. Cut with heart-shaped cutter. Place on baking sheet and brush with melted butter. Bake in a hot oven (450°F.) 15 minutes. Serve hot with chicken a la king.

CHICKEN A LA KING

Two 7-oz. cans chicken, 1 can cream mushroom soup, 1 cup sliced mushrooms, salt and pepper.

Valentine Tea

Oak Bay Catholic Women's League will hold a Valentine tea, Saturday, in the parish hall, 2064 Haultain Street, 2.30 to 5.

Guests will be received by the president, Mrs. E. E. Belton. Conveners are Mesdames J. B. E. Boyde, W. P. Jackman and J. Ryan. Invited to pour tea during the afternoon are Mesdames A. S. Taylor, T. C. Rogers, F. A. Fischer and Miss Doris Nation.

Home made candies and cakes with appropriate Valentine decorations will be on sale. A door prize will be given away.

Langford Guild Re-Elects Head

Mrs. Bullen's report revealed new prayer books, new covering on the church pews, china for the hall kitchen and help with committee suppers were principal projects during the year.

Mrs. Bullen expressed thanks to the membership for their co-operation. Reports were also given by Mrs. G. MacGregor and Mrs. H. A. Hincks.

Miss P. Tayler, secretary-treasurer, showed an amount of more than $300 raised through teas and a garden party.

Rev. H. J. Jones spoke briefly, describing the Guild as "a tower of strength to church and hall."

Officers for ensuing year are as follows: Mrs. D. B. F. Bullen, president; Mrs. L. Horner, vice-president; Miss P. Tayler, secretary - treasurer; Mesdames MacGregor, J. Goulding and E. Braithwaite, Dorcas committee; Mrs. H. A. Hincks, literature; Mesdames L. Horner and P. Oliver, readers; Miss P. Tayler, pianist; Mesdames W. T. Sims, P. Oliver, H. W. McKenzie, R. Franklin and H. A. Hincks, Altar Guild; H. W. McKenzie, auditor.

Annual shamrock tea will be held March 18 in St. Matthew's Hall.

Coffee Party — Esquimalt Women's Institute will hold a coffee party for members, Feb. 17, at home of Mrs. T. Hammett, 426 Chester Street. At meeting held recently in St. Paul's guild room plans were also made for Adelaide Hoodless Day tea on Feb. 19. Mrs. I. Sedger is in charge of tea tickets; Mrs. G. Jennings, refreshments; Mrs. J. Bradley and Mrs. M. Stewart, contests. A donation was made to shower of Dimes.

Teachers Honored in Port Angeles

Seven Victoria teachers were honored last Saturday when Upsilon Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma, national honor society for women teachers, held a luncheon meeting at Lee Hotel, Port Angeles. They were Miss Peggy Bell and Miss Marian James, who were made honorary members at first installation of Canadian members in April, 1951; Miss Winnett Copeland of the Provincial Normal School; Miss Ella Creighton, teacher-in-charge, Bank Street School; Miss Olive Heritage, vice-principal, Central Junior High; Miss Muriel Johnson, home economics department, Victoria High, and Miss Edna Jawrence, supervisor of mental health department, Greater Victoria Schools.

Following the luncheon, the last five named were initiated into the society as honorary members. The initiation was followed by a dinner and the evening was spent at the home of Mrs. Isobelle Whitfield.

Upsilon Chapter plans to hold its May meeting at Elan, Cowichan Bay, V.I., when Miss Rachel Knutsen, Seattle, will be guest speaker.

Author's Son to Marry B.C. Girl

Invitations have been issued for the wedding of Miss Katherine Isobel Murray, daughter of Mr. Leith Murray and the late Mrs. Murray, Vancouver, B.C., to Mr. Michael Rene de la Roche, son of Mazo de la Roche, the prominent Canadian writer who plans to come from Toronto for the ceremony.

The marriage will be solemnized Feb. 21, at 3 o'clock, in St. Mary's Anglican Church.

Returns to Seattle

Mrs. Jay Durand, the well-known pianist who has spent a brief holiday in Victoria, returned to her home in Seattle this morning. While here she has been the guest of Lieut.-Cmdr. and Mrs. H. R. Tingley, Grafton Street, Esquimalt, and of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Munro, Granite Street. Mrs. Durand, better known in this city as Gertrude Huntley Green, crossed to Vancouver for the last symphony concert there and was also present yesterday evening at the Victoria symphony concert and at a reception which followed at the Rockland Avenue home of Dr. and Mrs. W. A. McElmoyle.

* * *

Victorians who were in Vancouver on the week-end to attend the wedding of Miss Joan Hodson and Mr. Robert Blackhall, were Mr. and Mrs. H. Gray, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Williams and Miss J. Clendenning. Other out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Seymour and Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Porter of Duncan, V.I., and Mr. and Mrs. George Grey, Sidney, V.I.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Sweeting of Vancouver have been holidaying in Victoria for the last week staying at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. McGregor, 1456 Beach Drive. They will return to their home Thursday.

Brownies Rally

Five Brownie packs of Esquimalt District recently staged a rally at Victoria West Recreation Hall. A brief story on the coming Guide-Brownie Thinking Day was given, showing Thinking Day had its origin in the birthday of the chief guide and founder of guiding and scouting.

Rally opened with Fairy Circle ceremony and a welcome to the two commissioners. There was a special Thinking Day candle ceremony led by one Brownie from each pack and several games, including a special one for Fairy Gold collection which is being given by Brownies to Guide Friendship fund.

Golden bars, service stars and proficiency badges were awarded to the following: Linda Smith, Donna McRae, Gloria Daly, Maureen Power, Sharon Wilmhurst, Donna Chalke, Lynn Taylor, Donna Rae Dourand, Caroline Erickson, Alice Cronk, Suzanne Reynolds, Jane Rockford, Patsy Allen, Arlene Warren, Geraldine Synes, Dinae Linton, Gaye Wallace, Joan Greene, Jane Vallillee, Pat Leam, Sally Seward, Diane Gutoski, Sharon March and Patsy Thompson.

Provincial Rally—Plans were discussed at meeting of Women's Benefit Association, Review No. 1, for a provincial rally on June 22 in Victoria, in which groups from Vancouver Island, Vancouver and other parts of British Columbia will be present and at which the Victoria Review will act as hostess group. Final arrangements were made for a spring tea in the Douglas Room at Hudson's Bay the end of March.

IODE APPEALS FOR FLOOD VICTIMS

In conjunction with the provincial and national chapters of the Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire, Victoria Municipal Chapter, is making an appeal for good new and used clothing and bedding for victims of the floods in the British Isles and The Netherlands.

Members of the local chapter will be at headquarters each morning this week from 9.30 to 12, to receive donations.

National Chapter of the IODE has already sent $2,000 to the Women's Voluntary Services in England and $2,000 to The Netherlands Flood Relief Fund in Holland, for relief of the flood victims, and has also cabled the British Save the Children Fund and the Soldiers, Sailors and Airmen's Families Association in England authorizing use of IODE goods on hand—99 crates of clothing—for the relief of flood victims with instructions that this be put into effect immediately.

Harling-Skinner Wedding Vows In St. John's

In a quite ceremony in the chapel of St. John's Anglican Church last Friday evening at 7.15, Canon George Biddle officiated at the wedding of Miss Geraldine Meryl Skinner and Mr. David A. J. Harling.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Skinner, 2426 Oregon Avenue, and the groom the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Harling, 2145 Lorne Terrace.

Following the ceremony a supper party for 18 members of the immediate families was held in the private dining room at Strathcona Hotel, where a three-tier wedding cake centred the table, which was also decorated with daffodils. Raymond Hickey proposed the toast to his niece.

The honeymoon is being spent in Seattle. For traveling the bride donned a blue coat over her wedding suit, with the matching hat and corsage of red roses. On return Mr. and Mrs. Harling will live at 1520 Westall Avenue.

Potlach With Indian Motif, Clams, In March

Modern version of an Indian potlach will be held in the Armory on March 7 by Veterans' Hospital Women's Auxiliary. Details were discussed recently at a meeting, Mrs. Aubrey Kent presiding. Decorations will represent an Indian village. A variety of stalls will include Indian curios; there will be Indian dances, games and skits.

Afternoon tea will be served; clam chowder and hot dogs during the evening. Sidney Branch of Canadian Legion will donate sufficient clams to serve 1,000 people.

A special meeting of the W.A. will be held Monday, February 23, at 2, to deal with final arrangements. Donations of articles for superfluity stall should be left at Veterans' Hospital or Kent's Ltd.

OF PERSONAL INTEREST

Presages End-of February Wedding

The engagement has been announced of Norah Ann, only daughter of Mrs. Hughes, Kingston, Ont., and the late Lieut.-Col. Laughlin MacLeod Hughes, to Sub-Lieut. Donn Carmichael, RCN, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Maurice Carmichael, St. Denis Street, Victoria. The marriage will take place at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church on Saturday afternoon, Feb. 28, at 3 o'clock, with the Rev. J. L. W. McLean officiating.

Miss Hughes is a granddaughter of the late Maj.-Gen. and Mrs. W. St. Pierre Hughes of Ottawa and of Mrs. Gray of Victoria and the late Andrew Gray.

Sub-Lieut. Carmichael is a grandson of Mrs. Carmichael of Victoria and the late Herbert Carmichael and of the late Sir Richard McBride, former premier of British Columbia and Lady McBride.

Miss Hughes has chosen as her bridal attendants, Miss Joan Higgins of St. Catharines, Ont., maid of honor, and Miss Nancy Carmichael, sister of the groom, as bridesmaid.

A Tea Hour Hostess

Mrs. A. M. Robertson, charter member and past president of Soroptimist Club of Victoria, was a tea-hour hostess Sunday afternoon at her home, "Drumadoon," Haro Road, when guests were members and friends of the club.

Spring flowers decorated the house. Special guests were Miss Alma Russell, charter member and first president of the club; Dr. Laura Holland, Mrs. F. L. Smith, Miss Clarice Gray, Miss Vera Richards, Miss Doris Coulter and Miss Dorothy May.

Club members present were Mrs. Anne Robertson, president; Mrs. Mary French, Mrs. Ruth Greenslade, Mrs. Alice Kimmitt, Mrs. B. M. Clarke, Mrs. Nan Pohl, Mrs. Joseph Pearson, Misses Ella R. Walker, Nell M. Jones, Marjorie Harwood, Elsie Richards and Gertrude Maywood.

To Celebrate 71st Wedding Day

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Kirkpatrick, Victoria's senior married couple, will celebrate their 71st wedding anniversary at their home, 3369 Quadra Street, on Wednesday, and will be at home from 3 to 6, to their friends.

Local Council Reviews the Year's Work; Many Affiliates

In her president's report, this morning at opening session, 59th annual meeting of Local Council of Women, in YWCA, Mrs. R. D. Harvey presented a resume of study and work done during the year including high cost of living, town planning and unemployment insurance.

Highlight of the year, Mrs. Harvey said, was consideration and understanding of the need for better housing for the aged and for supervised nursing home care.

The council welcomed three new affiliates during the year bringing total of groups represented to 37. Delegates attending meetings represent nearly 3,000 Victoria women, the president reported.

Treasurer's report given by Mrs. R. B. Elliott showed receipts of $204 and disbursements of $244. Mrs. Elliott reminded the meeting that the council is a non-money-making organization.

Outstanding on the year's program was an International Tea at which representatives from many countries were present, some in native costume and others showing native arts and crafts.

Greetings were presented from the City of Victoria by Mayor Claude Harrison; Mrs. A. M. Perry acted as pianist. Candidates for office were introduced and election of officers and conveners held. Reports of affiliated societies and standing committees were heard.

The meeting continued this afternoon and will be in session all day Wednesday.

A Canadian's view of the Coronation will be discussed Wednesday at 3 p.m. by Rev. G. D. Kendell. He will endeavor to show the points of linkage and of difference in the customs surrounding the Coronation, and why it will mean as much to Canadians as to Britons.

Mr. Kendell, padre at the Veterans' Hospital and rector of St. Saviour's Anglican Church since 1946, was born in Canada but educated in both Canada and Great Britain, and was graduated from the University of Toronto. During the Second World War he served as a chaplain with the Canadian Army.

The meeting will be open to the public.

Shower Planned—The Vesuvius Bay Circle, Salt Spring Island Women's Auxiliary, met at the home of Mrs. Thomas Carlyle with Miss C. T. Motherwell in the chair. A shower of materials and wool, to be made into articles for the Vesuvius stall at the annual church sale of work, was arranged for Wednesday in St. Nicholas room, where a series of moving pictures will be showed by Archdeacon Holmes and refreshments convened by Mrs. A. E. Duke. Tea was served by Mrs. Carlyle.

For Bursary

Student nurses of Royal Jubilee Hospital are arranging a bridge and canasta party for Wednesday in the Nurses' Home from 2.30 to 5. Proceeds will be used for the bursary fund. Committee in charge of arrangements included Joan Whitten, Rosemary Condin, Barbara Cuthbert and Thelma Hanington.

Princess Alexandra Lodge, No. 18, Daughters of England, Wednesday at 7.30, Orange Hall.

BRIDGE LESSON

—By Oswald Jacoby

The severest test of a player's skill usually comes when he is playing a hand at a trump contract and must decide exactly how many rounds of trumps to draw and exactly what order is required for the playing of his tricks. Today's hand, taken from last year's European Championship, illustrates this kind of difficulty.

In both rooms of the match between Austria and England, the final contract was six spades, and West's opening lead was the ten of clubs. Both declarers won the first trick with the king of clubs and immediately cashed the king of hearts. From this point on, however, the play in the two rooms varied.

The Austrian declarer continued by taking the ace and king of trumps, after which he discarded his losing diamond on dummy's ace of hearts. Now he entered his hand with a third trump in order to ruff a low club in dummy.

Since the club suit broke badly, declarer's hand was not established by this time. He lost control of the hand and was set two tricks.

In the other room, the English declarer planned the hand better. After taking the second trick with the king of hearts, he drew only one round of trumps with dummy's king and discard his losing diamond.

He then returned to his hand with the ace of trumps and ruffed a low club in dummy. Since only two rounds of trumps had been drawn, dummy still had a trump left.

The English declarer led this last trump to his own queen, cashed the ace of clubs, and gave up one club trick to West. He could then claim the rest of the tricks with his last trump and the rest of the clubs.

Spare a Grand Piano? Vic College Needs One

The Victoria College 50th Anniversary Library Fund has reached its $5,000 minimum objective and is being kept open for further contributions honoring former professors of the college, Dr. Harry Hickman, principal, announced today.

At the same time Dr. Hickman stated the college is hoping to acquire a grand piano. If such an instrument were donated, he added, Robin Wood, distinguished Victoria artist now enjoying a successful season in Britain, might be the first to use it in recital.

Mr. Wood, a former student at Victoria College, has expressed the desire to donate the proceeds from a recital to the college to assist the jubilee library fund.

In addition to cash contributions to the fund, the committee has also received a number of book gifts, the largest, 750 French volumes, being donated by M. Etienne Sigaut of New York in memory of Madame Sanderson-Mongin. Other book dnoations have been made by the Marionette, Provincial Library, UBC Library, Vancouver Public Library, Miss Kathleen Agnew, Miss Jeanette Cann, John Darling, Mrs. J. W. Gibson, Sir Robert Holland, Major H. C. Holmes, Dr. J. D. Johnson, K. Leeming, D. Lochhead, Robert Matier, Dr. A. F. McGill, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Nesbitt, Mrs. W. C. Nichol, Maurice Park, Mrs. Jennie Perry, Dr. Alice Ravenhill, Mrs. H. Robertson, Miss Sara Spencer, W. T. Straith.

Two paintings have also been given, and a local business firm has supplied a display case for weekly exhibits of art materials.

O'Brien Sets Point Record

SEATTLE (AP) — Johnny O'Brien chalked up a new unofficial four-year career scoring mark Saturday as he rolled in 33 points to lead Seattle University to a 100-82 basketball win over Montana State College.

Glum Over TV Inroads

LONDON (AP) — Television cuts down beer consumption in London pubs, Chief Magistrate Walter Lowieth observed today.

"People who used to go to the taverns with some frequency are staying home to watch the television screens," he told a glum lot of pub proprietors who came for license extension.

Scoring Mark

Big Bob Houbregs shattered the Northern Division Pacific Coast Conference scoring record in Seattle Saturday to lead the Washington Huskies to a 69-56 win over a stubborn Washington State team.

The six-foot seven-inch hook-shot expert potted 28 points to boost his season's total to 274 points, beating the 265 credited to a former Washington centre, Jack Nichols.

My Coronation

This week-end, readers will find an excerpt from the diary of Queen Elizabeth II's great-great-grandmother, giving a vivid account of her own colorful and majestic Coronation in 1838. Undoubtedly, Victoria's own impressions and reactions on that historic day will profit Queen Elizabeth on her June date with destiny.

Is Midget Sport A Menace?
Andy O'Brien is in favor of pee-wee competition in sports, but of late, he has become aware of the opposition building up against little league athletes. With the hope of satisfying those well-meaning skeptics, Andy reviews the case of midget sports in Canada.

A Fish for Mr. Waddington
Read the heart-warming account of a hobo who loved to fish, but still found time to solve the perplexing problem of a middle-aged couple. The story is by Claire Knox — a housewife who does her writing while the four children are in bed.

The Birthday Present
Lining up a gift for Stephanie wasn't an easy task for Robbie who only had a quarter in his jean pockets. Besides, being a doctor's daughter, she already had more than he could ever buy. Read Muriel McKay's tender story of very young love with a Newfoundland setting.

Remember those famous Ziegfeld beauties of past years! Marilyn Miller, Gladys Glad, Mae Murray and Martha Mansfield. In 1897, the late Florenz Ziegfeld started on the road to fame and fortune with the initial Follies production and a publicity stunt whereby his first discovery, Anna Held, bathed daily in 40 gallons of milk. Recently chosen as the star most typical of these lovelies of yesteryear, Debra Paget recreates the Ziegfeld Follies Girl in this coming issue of WEEKEND. Don't miss this two-page feature!

HOME GARDEN

The home with its front border facing to the north presents a problem to many gardeners, because we have all been told that plants and shrubs need lots of sunshine for their well-being.

Hilda

One home gardener has asked what evergreen shrubs, not "cone bearing" (coniferous), may be planted in such a location. The garden is wide and fully open on the east and west, with a cottage built low to the ground.

There are fortunately several shrubs which thrive in shade, and some which do well in partial shade. A handsome shrub for the back of such a border is the Aucuba (au-keu-bah). There are dark green, and green and yellow varieties. To have the fall beauty of the scarlet berries, which are borne on the female plant, be sure to get one male shrub.

The golden variegated Euonymus japonicus would work in beautifully with the Aucuba. For contrast, Olearia haasti, with small glossy leaves and myriads of daisy-like flowers, could be planted near the west, where a fair amount of sun would be obtained during summer blooming season.

If the border is fairly deep, another flowering shrub would look well near the front on the east side where some winter sun would be available. Suited to this position is Viburnum tinus (laurestinus), carrying deep pink buds all winter, opening a few into tiny white flowers in every mild spell. The foliage is always pleasing, and in very early spring the effect is magnificent. Each of these shrubs is of medium growth, and may be controlled by very light pruning each in its season.

For dwarf plants near the front of the border, winter flowering heathers may be used to great advantage. Erica carnea Springwood White is a vigorous grower, with white flowers showing brown anthers. There is also a pink form. Another winter blooming heather is E. Darleyense, a lovely pink which begins its show in November and continues all winter.

All shrubs mentioned may be planted now if the border is ready, or an order placed with the nursery for delivery early next month.

Such a border would need very little else to make it of interest at all seasons. The perennial Meconopsis baileyi (the blue poppy of Tibet) with conspicuous yellow anthers, would look well. It thrives in shade and would receive some shelter for its roots from the shrubs. For added lightness in the late summer and fall, anemone japonica in pink and white would be most suitable and also loves the shade.

Motorists Fined $130 in City Police Court

Four motorists were fined a total of $130 in city police court Monday for unlawfully driving cars not covered by insurance, operating a car without being the holder of a current year's license and for careless driving. All pleaded guilty.

They were:

Terence V. Smith, 350 Dallas, who got a $35 fine for driving a car without a 1952 license after he explained he had been driving without a license since last August.

Ronald V. Pearce, 1347 Basil, $40 fine and a license suspension for careless driving. He was involved in a recent two-car collision on Cook Street. Court was told Pearce was on the wrong side of the road.

Umbrellas Catch $1,976 Shower In Solarium Cash

Fifty young women of the league who are devoting all their spare time to collecting funds for the Queen Alexandra Solarium aim to better last year's drive total of $17,000.

The money collected accounts for the difference between operating costs, payments by parents of child-patients and 30-day coverage by the BCHIS.

Boy's Hand Imprisoned In Pop-Corn Machine

Twelve-year-old John Chesman, 1314 Richardson, got the fingers of his right hand caught in the mechanism of a pop-corn machine at the Vancouver Island Coach Lines Depot and it took three policemen 20 minutes to free the imprisoned hand.

Island Hardwood Tests Fail

Experiments started here in 1948 fail to substantiate hopes of producing raw hardwood material for furniture on Vancouver Island, according to Angus McBean, chief forester for MacMillan and Bloedel Ltd.

This obscures the hopes of foresters in British Columbia that hardwoods, such as walnut and hickory, could be established to serve as raw material for the manufacture of furniture, tool handles, and various other goods.

McBean established the first experimental plots in the vicinity of Northwest Bay, between Parksville and Nanaimo, in 1948, when he planted 5,000 trees which were secured from St. Williams nursery in southern Ontario.

A recent visit indicated that these trees will not thrive here on the coast, or at least not in that area.

He is still hopeful, however, that a change of site or some other factor may create conditions favorable to their growth.

EDEN TO VISIT TURKEY

LONDON (BUP) — Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden will visit Turkey and Greece in April.

It is hoped that, by then, Greece and Turkey will have signed a "Little Balkans" defense agreement with Yugoslavia. Negotiations for the pact are to start in Athens late this month.

TWO for the SHOW

By PHIL LEE

AA (Oscar Class) A (Don't Miss) BB (Worthwhile) (B For Rainy Days) C (To put in time)

(A) "OPERATION SECRET" (Capitol) — To some the plot may seem too involved to be thoroughly enjoyed, while to others — particularly Second World War veterans and men of today's armed forces—"Operation Secret" will be an intense documentary that will absorb them from beginning to end.

The plot, in brief: Capt. Armand (Paul Piceri), an officer in the maquis during the war, meets his death at the hands of an unidentified comrade. In a post-war investigation into the murder all concerned—Marcel Brevoort (Steve Cochran), one-time underground leader; Marie (Phillis Thaxter), and Major Latrec (Karl Malden), all former maquis—are summoned by the French Surete for questioning.

From the interrogation the authorities learn of Peter Forrester (Cornel Wilde), a foreign legionnaire who, with Latrec, unsuccessfully oppose Marcel and Armand's plan to surrender their patrol to the Nazis after the fall of France. Ordinarily this would have been a trite enough plot. However, here the difference is that while the maquis are fighting desperately on behalf of the Allies and the liberation of France there are those within the organization who are Communists and would keep certain information secret from Britain and hand it over to the Kremlin.

The cloak and dagger plot is brimful with suspense. But what veterans will enjoy most are sequences showing maquis members taking moving pictures of top secret German inventions such as the buzz bomb and the first jet aircraft.

OMAHA, Nebraska (BUP)—Arthur Godfrey is on his way to an overseas visit to strategic Air Command bases as a guest of General Curtis Lemay.

The tour was described as "educational" for the radio and television entertainer. Godfrey is a member of the naval air reserve, but the SAC headquarters would not explain what he was doing on an air force inspection trip.

Godfrey is a friend of U.S. Secretary of Defense Charles E. Wilson. There have been reports he might be named as an assistant secretary of the navy or a defense department consultant.

'Peg's' Charm and Wit Win First-Nighters

By EILEEN CAMPBELL

An Irish lass with gay charm and quick wit had the time of her life down at the York Theatre Monday night—the capacity first-night audience had likewise, I'm sure.

The lass was Norma Macmillan of Vancouver's Totem Theatre . . . she was stubborn and funny, angry and loving by turn as she portrayed the lead role in J. Hartley Manners' old faithful, "Peg o' My Heart."

Sharing top honors was Ian Thorne as "Mr. Jerry" who, like the audience, fell in love with Peg.

Peg, looking every inch the Irish waif, arrives at the ancestral English home of the frosty-face Chichesters, who have agreed to take her in and teach her to be a lady in order to save themselves from financial ruin.

The grooming of Peg will keep the wolf from the Chichester door by a good 1,000 pounds a year, according to terms of an uncle's will. In the process of "educating" Peg, the Chichesters' mater, sister and brother Alartic—learned a few things too.

BUBBLING VIVACITY

On stage almost continuously, Miss Macmillan turned in a superb performance. She bubbled with Irish vivacity and the scene wherein she mimics her frigid aunt was a delight.

Mr. Thorne gave his usual solid performance. Relaxed and easy, he enabled the audience to relax with him and enjoy every moment of his appearances. He and Miss Macmillan caught the spirit of the play and never stepped out of character.

Vivienne Chadwick was a dignified "mater" to the last. She may have been just a little ashamed of her behavior toward Peg but the Chichester frost was too deep-rooted to melt overnight.

Doris Sheridan as Ethel Chichester who is "saved" from Brent by Peg, gave an able account of herself and has good stage presence.

CONVINCING FOP

Michael Rothery's portrayal of the foppish Alaric Chichester, Ethel's brother, gave the play a number of amusing moments, but the characterization tended to be over-done. Mr. Rothery's interpretation did not do justice to the talent he has displayed in previous shows.

Basil Issigonis and John Maunsell, guest artists, both appeared to advantage, the former as Mr. Hawkes, the lawyer, and the latter as the butler.

The play directed by Ian Thorne was well-paced. The lighting, staging and general production left little to be desired. Forgotten lines and miscues—a first night hazard—were conspicuous by their absence. The play continues every night this week at 8 with a Saturday matinee at 2.

Lawyer Pays Fine, Protests Principle

Cameron had been "ticketed" twice for parking meter violations in the same place within three hours Jan. 23.

He paid the fine for the first ticket, but contested the second on the grounds he should not be hit twice as it was a continuing offense.

"The fine is trivial, but the principle is great," said the young lawyer.

He thought the by-law in question was weak in that it did not separate offenses taking place on a continued basis. Prosecutor Alan Bigelow interpreted the by-law to mean that each time the "violation" showed it was an offense under any circumstances.

Magistrate H. C. Hall found Cameron guilty when he pointed out there was no clear evidence to show accused's car had remained at the same parking meter for the entire length of time.

Chinese Reds Defy Invasion

Promise Disaster at Sea to Any Nationalist Foray; Rumors Fly

By GRAHAM JENKINS

HONG KONG (Reuters) — Communist China announced today that any effort to invade the Chinese mainland would be "wiped out on the sea."

The warning fell as a welter of reports throughout the Far East described sea clashes, sightings of mysterious vessels and pledges of support for a Nationalist invasion of the mainland.

President Eisenhower touched off the Far East ferment eight days ago by ordering the U.S. 7th fleet to cease shielding the Chinese mainland from a Nationalist invasion.

Communist troops there, the broadcast said, are in "the first line of defense," and are being given "every comfort" including visits from entertainers to raise their spirits.

Almost simultaneous with the Peiping broadcast, a 25-minute sea battle took place this morning off an island about 30 miles southeast of the Portuguese colony of Macau. Reliable sources here said Communist patrol boats had exchanged fire with armed junks believed to belong to the Chinese Nationalist "sea guerrillas."

An observer with a telescope said he had seen one armed junk hit and sunk.

Sources here said the encounter might represent the first Nationalist move to blockade the Chinese mainland—a plan now being widely discussed in the United States.

Reports from Formosa today said Admiral John Ma, Nationalist navy commander now in the U.S., was trying to obtain four American rocket ships ready for immediate use to help implement an effective blockade of the China coast.

U.K. RENEWS BLOCKADE OPPOSITION

LONDON (AP) — Britain for the second day running served official notice of opposition to any proposal to blockade the China coastline.

The Marquess of Reading, parliamentary under-secretary for foreign affairs, told the House of Lords the government "would view with concern any proposal to institute a naval blockade."

He added: "It would not in our view contribute to the early conclusion of hostilities in Korea."

1 Dead, 38 Hurt In Koje Camp Riot

PUSAN, Korea (AP). — One Communist prisoner of war was killed and 38 injured, 13 seriously, on Koje Island Monday when United Nations guards subdued a singing, chanting Red mob with grenade and rifle fire, the UN prisoner-of-war command announced today.

There were no Allied casualties.

Talk of Blockade 'Premature'—Dulles

WASHINGTON (AP)—State Secretary John Foster Dulles told senators today President Eisenhower has made no decision on a possible blockade of Communist China or other action in the Far East.

Dulles, who testified at a closed session of the Senate foreign relations committee, was quoted by two senators as having told the group that any discussion of a blockade is "premature."

Senators H. Alexander Smith, Rep., N.J., and William Fulbright, D., Ark., said they got the impression from Dulles that the whole Far Eastern situation is wide open for any action the President may want to take in the future.

Gen. Omar Bradley, chairman of the joint chiefs of staff, and Secretary of State John Foster Dulles are appearing before a closed session of the foreign relations committee.

Meanwhile, leading Republican and some Democratic senators had made their views known in advance of the secret session:

Chairman Alexander Wiley (R—Wis.) called for "actual delivery of the military hardware" to the Chinese Nationalists, which, he said, "had fallen deplorably behind schedule.

Sen. Styles Bridges (R N.H.) not only called for a blockade but said he favored allowing UN planes to bomb Red-held Manchuria and the use of atom bombs to end the Korean war.

Sen. R. B. Russell (D—Ga.) said the United States should "press vigorously" for a UN blockade.

Sen. Everett Dirksen (R—Ill.) endorsed a blockade but did not specify it should be UN sponsored.

Sen. William Rowland (R—Cal.) wants the United States to "go it alone" on a blockade if necessary.

Sen. Robert Taft (R—Ohio) said it was "open to question whether the U.S. should attempt a blockade without Allied help" and said he would support a Nationalist invasion of the mainland "only if the administration considered it a feasible measure."

Sen. Estes Kefauver (D., Tenn.) insisted agreements should be worked out in the UN before any blockade is imposed.

Sen. Lester Hunt (D., Wyo.) said "the British can't pull out" from a decision to blockade Red China if the U.S. insists on it.

Sen. Hubert Humphrey (D., Minn.) said he would ask Dulles if he has considered the possibility of submarine retaliation in case of a blockade.

SEOUL (AP)—Gen. James A. Van Fleet said today a United Nations general offensive in Korea now would be a certain success.

On the eve of his farewell to the 8th Army, the 60-year-old retiring commander again expressed belief in carrying the war to the Reds, said the UN lost opportunities for whipping the Communists and called for a 1,000,000-man Republic of Korea Army with 20 combat divisions.

Evidence on Douk Terrorism Sought

Attorney-General Robert W. Bonner issued a province-wide appeal today urging citizens to come forth with evidence fixing responsibility for new acts of terrorism that have blasted a trail of bombings and arson across Brtish Columbia's rugged interior valleys.

Bonner's appeal came on the heels of an outbreak of new incidents blamed on the radical Sons of Freedom Doukhobor sect.

Production Record

OTTAWA (BUP)—The Bureau of Statistics announced today that Canada's gross national production reached a record $22,984,000,000 in 1952, 7 per cent greater than in 1951.

The $1,536,000,000 advance in the total value of goods and services produced was in line with previous predictions by Finance Minister D. C. Abbott.

Conscription Stays

LONDON (BUP) — Prime Minister Winston Churchill said today he cannot consider reduction of Britain's two-year period of compulsory military service at present.

Laborites asked Churchill in the House of Commons whether he would consider reducing the term of the draft or abolishing it.

"No reduction in the period of national service can be contemplated at the present time," Churchill said.

De Havilands Said Planning B.C. Plant

VANCOUVER (CP) — The Vancouver Province says today in a newspage story that a multi-million dollar plant may be built on suburban Sea Island by the De Haviland Aircraft of Canada Limited.

The newspaper said that a 120-acre tract about one mile from Vancouver's international airport has been purchased by the De Haviland company.

Flood Relief Now $16,683

Generous Victorians continue to pour money into the Victoria Daily Times Flood Relief Fund for British, Dutch and Belgian flood victims, raising it to a total today of $16,683.

First of the city service clubs to contribute to the relief of the flood victims was the Victoria Gyro Club, which voted a $200 donation to the fund Monday.

Other substantial donations received at the Times office today were: League of Roses, $50; Dr. H. J. Wasson, $100; Mr. and Mrs. Norman Yarrow, $100; Army, Navy and Air Force Veterans' Ladies' Auxiliary, $100: Mayor Claude Harrison, $50, and $61.46 collected by Gus Polz from his fellow workers at Victoria Machinery Depot.

Tighten Red Defenses

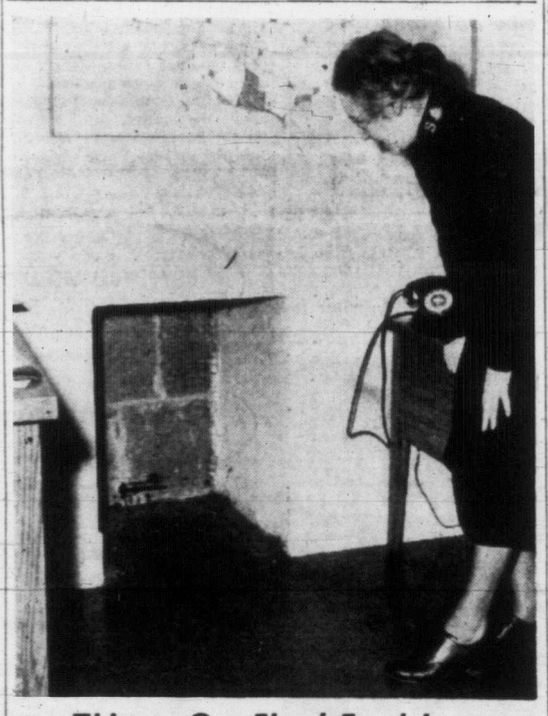
HONG KONG (Reuters) — Chinese Communists have executed 13 "counter revolutionaries" and jailed many more in a big drive to tighten the defenses of South China against Nationalist guerrillas.

Villages Marooned as New Gales Whip Isles

LONDON (AP). — A howling 80-mile-an-hour blizzard marooned three English villages today and whipped up dangerous new gales along the flood-battered east coast. The icy blasts piled snowdrifts up to six feet deep in parts of Northern England and Wales, blocking 16 main roads and stranding scores of vehicles.

Gale warnings in the surly North Sea spurred thousands of troops and volunteers racing to rebuild shattered sea and river defenses along the east coast.

Work in some sections had to stop during the night because of the gale. But early today troops and volunteers resumed bolstering defenses shattered in the great storm 10 days ago.



Thieves Get Flood Fund Loot

B.C. Co-Ordinates Aid For Victims of Flood

A fund launched Monday by the B.C. government to aid reconstruction of flood-wrecked British homes will be open to donations from the public and industry, according to Premier W. A. C. Bennett.

The premier announced in the Legislature that the government has credited the fund with $100,000. It will be used solely for the purchase of B.C. lumber now in the United Kingdom.

The British home secretary has advised the government, he said, that "arrangements to release part of the B.C. lumber now in the United Kingdom would greatly speed up relief work which might not otherwise be freely undertaken, in so far as such work depends on timber, owing to the dollar shortage currently being experienced by the government of the United Kingdom."

The fund will be administered by W. A. McAdam, B.C. agent-general in Great Britain.

Donations may be sent to the fund in care of the Premier's office.

Premier Bennett has sent a wire to Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent recommending that the federal government allow al. flood fund donations to be exempt from corporation and income tax.

He has also accepted the Prime Minister's invitation to serve on the national committee to aid all floor sufferers.

Pat Has It Pat

Thieves Take $1,000 Flood Relief Funds

Thieves carried off a Salvation Army Citadel safe which contained a cheque for $1,000 for European flood relief, $200 in bearer bonds and an unspecified amount of cash some time Monday night or Tuesday morning.

Police disclosed that the flood relief cheque was made out for $1,000. Cash was believed to total about $100, possibly more.

Records of several days' flood relief collections were stolen with the safe.

From there, police assume, the safe was loaded into a car and carried to a secluded spot for systematic destruction.

Besides cash and bonds, the safe contained insurance and other valuable papers and records.

SECOND VICTIM

The Citadel robbery was not the only one of the night. Jack Lacey was checking stock at his auto body repair shop to see if Monday night thieves had made more than a search of the place.

The office was ransacked, but "they didn't get any cash because none was left there," he said.

Closing Prices

Among mining issues, Beaver Lodge sold at $1.64, Quatsino 44½, Doreen 30c, Western Tungsten $3.50, Rix Athabaska $3.05.

Heated Argument By Tourist Group

Tourist trade group of the Victoria Chamber of Commerce today called for the scrapping of Wednesday afternoon store closing.

A resolution to this effect was passed following heated discussion, and will be forwarded to City Council.

Ald. Brent Murdoch won a fight with Woodward's store manager Courtenay Haddock, on the issue.

Ald. Murdoch urged the group to support an appeal to the City Council to abolish the Wednesday afternoon closing by-law, charging: "Store hours at present are ruining tourist trade and are working a severe hardship on operators of small shops."

'SELFISH INTERESTS'

"The present system is being preserved by a handful of selfish interests," the alderman said.

Mr. Haddock countered with the claim that "the business you get on Wednesday is not worth the powder to blow it to hell."

"The same argument raged in Vancouver," he said, "but it is simply a case of the newspapers creating a furor over the issue because they want Wednesday opening to get more advertising."

Mr. Haddock contended that store help deserved the Wednesday half holiday, and for this reason alone the shops ought to be closed.

Mrs. A. Burr, proprietor of the Stork Shop, said that the tourist complaints were constant against "slamming the doors in visitor's faces on Wednesdays."

City lawyer Robert Harvey told the meeting it was obvious that store executives like Mr. Haddock got their salaries anyway, no matter how long his store stayed open, or how much business his firm did, but the "little man" depends on more shopping hours and more business to earn a living.

Hospital Asks Statement of Financial Aid

A thorough review of all items of the contentious North Vancouver Hospital budget was scheduled for today at a meeting that might decide whether the hospital board or the government is going to run the hospital.

A delegation from the hospital, one of the first to feel the effect of the government's hospital freeze order, today was seeking a definite statement on government funds that will be available.

Here to try to solve the hospital's financial difficulties are Mayor Frank Goldsworthy and Ted Braggs, who will meet with Premier W. A. C. Bennett, Health Minister Eric Martin and Lloyd Detwiller, BCHIS commissioner.

Mao's Far East Fighting Machine

Communist China army of over 5,000,000 men is probably largest standing army in world today. Map shows approximate location and strength of Mao Tse-tung's "people's liberation army." Reds have also built five new air bases next to Indo-China, in Kwangsi Province—an added threat to French fighting Viet Minh rebels. Some experts feel blockade of China coast would hamper Reds.

$1,000 Salvation Army Flood Funds Stolen

Reds Promise Disaster To Any Invasion Forces

By GRAHAM JENKINS

HONG KONG (Reuters)—Communist China announced today that any effort to invade the Chinese mainland would be "wiped out on the sea."

The warning fell as a welter of reports throughout the Far East described sea clashes, sightings of mysterious vessels and pledges of support for a Nationalist invasion of the mainland.

President Eisenhower touched off the Far East ferment eight days ago by ordering the U.S. 7th fleet to cease shielding the Chinese mainland from a Nationalist invasion.

Communist troops there, the broadcast said, are in "the first line of defense," and are being given "every comfort" including visits from entertainers to raise their spirits.

Almost simultaneous with the Peiping broadcast, a 25-minute sea battle took place this morning off an island about 30 miles southeast of the Portuguese colony of Macau. Reliable sources here said Communist patrol boats had exchanged fire with armed junks believed to belong to the Chinese Nationalist "sea guerrillas."

An observer with a telescope said he had seen one armed junk hit and sunk.

Sources here said the encounter might represent the first Nationalist move to blockade the Chinese mainland—a plan now being widely discussed in the United States.

Reports from Formosa today said Admiral John Ma, Nationalist navy commander now in the U.S., was trying to obtain four American rocket ships ready for immediate use to help implement an effective blockade of the China coast.

HIGH TENSION

As tension heightened from Tokyo to Singapore, there were these additional developments:

1. Coast Guard officials in Southern Japan reported mysterious vessels of unknown nationality had appeared in waters north of Formosa in the last week. Two ships were spotted by fishermen Monday 160 miles north of Formosa. A floating mine was found in the area the day previously.

2. In Singapore, more than 100 Chinese associations cabled Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek, Nationalist chief, and President Eisenhower assuring them of "full support in the fight against Communists in China."

3. North Korea's defense minister, Choi Yung Kun, called for intensified preparations for a prolonged war "on a still larger scale" in Korea, according to Peiping radio. He described the North Korean Army now as "an invincible force" which would deal a decisive blow to any further U.S. "military adventure."

4. In Pusan, the provisional South Korean capital, Korean naval chief Admiral Shon Won Yil called for expansion of his navy for the day "when the greater part of the U.S. 7th fleet goes to blockade Communist ships." He said he had discussed expansion of South Korea's navy with U.S. 7th fleet officials.

Talk of Blockade 'Premature'—Dulles

Retiring Van Fleet Says Allied Offensive Could Win Korean War

WASHINGTON (AP)—State Secretary John Foster Dulles told senators today President Eisenhower has made no decision on a possible blockade of Communist China or other action in the Far East.

Dulles, who testified at a closed session of the Senate foreign relations committee, was quoted by two senators as having told the group that any discussion of a blockade is "premature."

Senators H. Alexander Smith, Rep., N.J., and William Fulbright, D., Ark., said they got the impression from Dulles that the whole Far Eastern situation is wide open for any action the President may want to take in the future.

Gen. Omar Bradley, chairman of the joint chiefs of staff, and Secretary of State John Foster Dulles are appearing before a closed session of the foreign relations committee.

Meanwhile, leading Republican and some Democratic senators had made their views known in advance of the secret session:

Chairman Alexander Wiley (R—Wis.) called for "actual delivery of the military hardware" to the Chinese Nationalists, which, he said, "had fallen deplorably behind schedule.

Sen. Styles Bridges (R N.H.) not only called for a blockade but said he favored allowing UN planes to bomb Red-held Manchuria and the use of atom bombs to end the Korean war.

Sen. R. B. Russell (D—Ga.) said the United States should "press vigorously" for a UN blockade.

Sen. Everett Dirksen (R—Ill.) endorsed a blockade but did not specify it should be UN sponsored.

Sen. William Rowland (R—Cal.) wants the United States to "go it alone" on a blockade if necessary.

Sen. Robert Taft (R—Ohio) said it was "open to question whether the U.S. should attempt a blockade without Allied help and said he would support a Nationalist invasion of the mainland "only if the administration considered it a feasible measure."

Sen. Estes Kefauver (D., Tenn.) insisted agreements should be worked out in the UN before any blockade is imposed.

Sen. Lester Hunt (D., Wyo.) said "the British can't pull out" from a decision to blockade Red China if the U.S. insists on it.

Sen. Hubert Humphrey (D., Minn.) said he would ask Dulles if he has considered the possibility of submarine retaliation in case of a blockade.

SEOUL (AP)—Gen. James A. Van Fleet said today a United Nations general offensive in Korea now would be a certain success.

On the eve of his farewell to the 8th Army, the 60-year-old retiring commander again expressed belief in carrying the war to the Reds, said the UN lost opportunities for whipping the Communists and called for a 1,000,000-man Republic of Korea Army with 20 combat divisions.

Chamber Group Favors Open Wednesday

Issue Brings Hot Argument

Tourist trade group of the Victoria Chamber of Commerce today called for the scrapping of Wednesday afternoon store closing.

A resolution to this effect was passed following heated discussion, and will be forwarded to City Council.

Ald. Brent Murdoch won a fight with Woodward's store manager Courtenay Haddock, on the issue.

Ald. Murdoch urged the group to support an appeal to the City Council to abolish the Wednesday afternoon closing by-law, charging: "Store hours at present are ruining tourist trade and are working a severe hardship on operators of small shops."

'SELFISH INTERESTS'

"The present system is being preserved by a handful of selfish interests," the alderman said.

Mr. Haddock countered with the claim that "the business you get on Wednesday is not worth the powder to blow it to hell."

"The same argument raged in Vancouver," he said, "but it is simply a case of the newspapers creating a furor over the issue because they want Wednesday opening to get more advertising."

Mr. Haddock contended that store help deserved the Wednesday half holiday, and for this reason alone the shops ought to be closed.

COMPLAINTS

Mrs. A. Burr, proprietor of the Stork Shop, said that the tourist complaints were constant against "slamming the doors in visitor's faces on Wednesdays."

City lawyer Robert Harvey told the meeting it was obvious that store executives like Mr. Haddock got their salaries anyway, no matter how long his store stayed open, or how much business his firm did, but the "little man" depends on more shopping hours and more business to earn a living.

Mother and Three Children Die

LAC STE. MARIE, Que. (CP)—A mother and three of her four children were burned to death early today in a fire which destroyed their isolated farm home 60 miles north of Ottawa.

Killed in the blaze, caused by an exploding oil stove, were Mrs. Germaine Lachapelle, Lucette, 1; Gislaine, 2, and Muriel, 3.

1 Dead, 38 Hurt In Koje Camp Riot

PUSAN, Korea (AP).—One Communist prisoner of war was killed and 38 injured, 13 seriously, on Koje Island Monday when United Nations guards subdued a singing, chanting Red mob with grenade and rifle fire, the UN prisoner-of-war command announced today.

There were no Allied casualties.

The flare-up came when North Korean prisoners began to shout and sing Communist songs "in violation of written orders". Three attempts were made to quiet them before the troops entered the compound. The Reds met the troops with "a hail of stones".

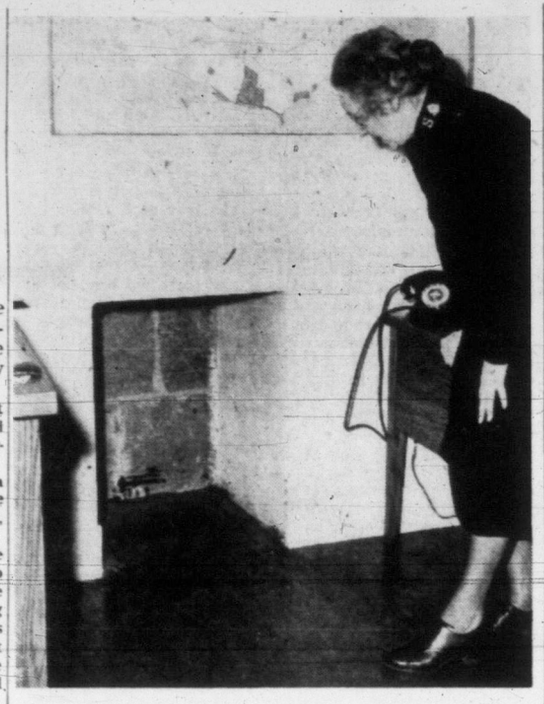
Plane Crash Kills 32

CAIRO (AP) — Thirty-two Egyptian soldiers were killed in a military transport plane which crashed in the eastern desert near Cairo Monday, an Egyptian air force spokesman announced today.

'Guilty' Say 23 Accused Of Spying

LONDON (UP)—All 23 persons accused in Bucharest of being American and British spies have pleaded guilty, Communist radio broadcasts said today in reporting the latest in a series of purge-show trials in Soviet satellite countries.

There are no American correspondents in Bucharest today and the trial is covered by official Soviet and Romanian agency correspondents. Broadcasts by Moscow radio and Bucharest radio quoting Soviet Tass agency and Hungarian Agerpress dispatches are monitored in London.



Thieves Get Flood Fund Loot

Tel Aviv Blast Hurts Red Minister's Wife

TEL AVIV (AP) — Several dozen persons have been arrested in connection with the bombing of the Soviet legation here Monday night. Five persons, including the wife of the Soviet minister were injured.

It was believed the bombing was in reprisal for recent anti-Zionist charges by Communist officials in Mocow and the satellite capitals.

Israeli police announced that several persons have been arrested. But it was learned that dozens of persons were taken into custody during the night and this moring, mostly in Tel Aviv and Jerusalem. Among those detained for questioning are Chavir-Shiber of Jaffa, who stood unsuccessfully at the last parliamentary elections.

Police also raided clubs of the so-called anti-Communist League, confiscating a number of documents.

The Israeli government called the bombing a "dastardly outrage" and expressed its regrets to the Russian envoy and his staff and promised "swift justice" to those responsible.

It was learned from a reliable source in Tel Aviv hospital that surgeons expressed anxiety before the operation in view of recent Russian allegations that Jewish doctors intentionally killed Russian patients and requested the Soviet first secretary, Alexander Abramoff, to be present in the Hadassah operating theatre. Abramoff complied.

Vana's condition was reported today to be still serious.

Hospital Asks Statement of Financial Aid

A thorough review of all items of the contentious North Vancouver Hospital budget was scheduled for today at a meeting that might decide whether the hospital board or the government is going to run the hospital.

A delegation from the hospital, one of the first to feel the effect of the government's hospital freeze order, today was seeking a definite statement on government funds that will be available.

Here to try and solve the hospital's financial difficulties are Mayor Frank Goldsworthy and Ted Braggs, who will meet with Premier W. A. C. Bennett, Health Minister Eric Martin and Lloyd Detwiller, BCHIS commissioner.

Nuns Return To Canada From Red China Jail

VANCOUVER (BUP)—Thin and weakened from the "oppressive mental pressure" of two years in Communist China jails, two Canadian nuns rested today in a Roman Catholic hospital before moving on to the motherhouse in Montreal.

Sister Superior Alphonse du Redempteur (Antoinette Couvrette, 29, of Ste Dorthee, Que.) and Sister Marie Germaine (Germaine Gravel, 44, of St. Pasteur, Que.) returned to Canada late yesterday after a 34-day Pacific crossing.

Both nuns were sentenced to five years in jail on trumped-up charges that they murdered 2,116 children in the Sacred Heart orphanage they operated at Canton for the Order of the Immaculate Conception.

Safe-Crackers Get $1,300 In Night Raid on Citadel

Thieves carried off a Salvation Army Citadel safe which contained a cheque for $1,000 for European flood relief, $200 in bearer bonds and an unspecified amount of cash some time Monday night or Tuesday morning.

Police disclosed that the flood relief cheque was made out for $1,000. Cash was believed to total about $100, possibly more.

Records of several days' flood relief collections were stolen with the safe.

From there, police assume, the safe was loaded into a car and carried to a secluded spot for systematic destruction.

Besides cash and bonds, the safe contained insurance and other valuable papers and records.

SECOND VICTIM

The Citadel robbery was not the only one of the night. Jack Lacey was checking stock at his auto body repair shop to see if Monday night thieves had made more than a search of the place.

The office was ransacked, but "they didn't get any cash because none was left there," he said.

Flood Relief Fund Total Now $16,683

Sunday Show Aids With $742 Gift

Generous Victorians continue to pour money into the Victoria Daily Times Flood Relief Fund for British, Dutch and Belgian flood victims, raising it to a total today of $16,683.

First of the city service clubs to contribute to the relief of the flood victims was the Victoria Gyro Club, which voted a $200 donation to the fund Monday.

Other substantial donations received at the Times office today were: League of Roses, $50; Dr. H. J. Wasson, $100; Mr. and Mrs. Norman Yarrow, $100; Army, Navy and Air Force Veterans' Ladies' Auxiliary, $100; Mayor Claude Harrison, $50, and $61.46 collected by Gus Polz from his fellow workers at Victoria Machinery Depot.

Coming events to help the fund are a tag day Saturday by Victoria municipal chapter, IODE, and a fashion show and entertainment Feb. 25 at Club Sirocco under sponsorship by Victorians of Dutch origin.

80-Mile Wind Whips Britain

LONDON (AP).—A howling 80-mile-an-hour blizzard marooned three English villages today and whipped up dangerous new gales along the flood-battered east coast. The icy blasts piled snowdrifts up to six feet deep in parts of Northern England and Wales, blocking 16 main roads and stranding scores of vehicles.

Gale warnings in the surly North Sea spurred thousands of troops and volunteers racing to rebuild shattered sea and river defenses along the east coast.

Work in some sections had to stop during the night because of the gale. But early today troops and volunteers resumed bolstering defenses shattered in the great storm 10 days ago.

B.C. Co-Ordinates Aid For Victims of Flood

A fund launched Monday by the B.C. government to aid reconstruction of flood-wrecked British homes will be open to donations from the public and industry, according to Premier W. A. C. Bennett.

The premier announced in the Legislature that the government has credited the fund with $100,000. It will be used solely for the purchase of B.C. lumber now in the United Kingdom.

The British home secretary has advised the government, he said, that "arrangements to release part of the B.C. lumber now in the United Kingdom would greatly speed up relief work which might not otherwise be freely undertaken, in so far as such work depends on timber, owing to the dollar shortage currently being experienced by the government of the United Kingdom."

The fund will be administered by W. A. McAdam, B.C. agent-general in Great Britain.

Donations may be sent to the fund in care of the Premier's office.

Premier Bennett has sent a wire to Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent recommending that the federal government allow all flood fund donations to be exempt from corporation and income tax.

He has also accepted the Prime Minister's invitation to serve on the national committee to aid all floor sufferers.

A KISS FROM THE MAESTRO

By AUDREY ST. D. JOHNSON

Mary Hammond, 'cello soloist, whose performance of the exacting Haydn concerto in D major with the Victoria Symphony Orchestra, brought the salutation of a kiss on the forehead from reserved maestro, Hans Gruber: And the performance of the orchestra itself, which consistently, throughout the three programmed numbers, maintained a gratifying level, rising to true brilliance in the climax of the evening—the Sibelius second symphony.

In her playing of the 'cello concerto, Mary Hammond proved her capabilities as an executant of her instrument. Her depth as an artist has long been recognized. Last night, she strengthened that impression, particularly in the middle and final movements.

Tensions betrayed in the first movement were not present in the lovely Adagio, nor in the finale. A tender serenity breathed through the shapely phrases of the slow section; there was a full realization of its lyricism, the tone warm, full and beautifully colored, amplifying the inherent poetry.

The brilliant left-hand technique, as well as a supple and cunning bowing arm, were much in evidence through flashing tempi and long, intricate cadenzas in the first and second movements.

As for the orchestra, it has learned very thoroughly, thanks to its conductor, the fine art of providing background for a soloist. With Gruber on the podium, there is no conflict; he holds the reins firmly and when he unleashes the orchestral powers, there is no break in the musical line, but a continuance with the orchestra taking the lead.

This evening of symphonic music ended as such evenings should end—on a high level of enthusiasm. To its first performance of Sibelius Concerto No. 2 in D, the orchestra gave its best.

And it was a better best than anything it has heretofore given. Perhaps because Gruber has never conducted with more inspiration and fire than he did in this work. Whatever might be said in the way of detailed criticism, the fact remains, that the orchestra got its teeth into the symphony and presented it with a spirit and truth that infected the audience with a wild and deserved enthusiasm.
